VOLUME 17

ST. JOHNS, PORTLAND, OREGON, FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 1921.

NUMBER 33

Allen Flinn entertained his graduating class the 8th B of the George school last Thursday evening, June 16th, at his home, 507 East Tioga street. They had a merry time playing games until a late hour, when refreshments were served by Mrs. Flinn, after which the party broke up, each claiming that they had a lovely time. Those present were, Prof. and Mrs. D. J. Williams, Prof. Williams being the teacher of the class, Marie Lindley, Dorothy Calhoun, Ellen Landerholm, Velma McDonald, Norma Scales, Lottie Gee, Velma Bort, Myrtle Taylor, Alpha Flinn, Leilah Flinn, Edmond Borcher, Leo Green, Russell Johnson, Joe Smith, LeRoy Calhoun, William Flinn, Allen Flinn and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Flinn.

The Douglas county pioneers met at Peninsula Park last Sunday. Pleasant and sad memories were blended together. Every year the roll call shows some have reached the end of a toilsome journey. On the other hand it is pleasant to meet friends of bygone days. By a rising vote the organization requested that Oregon history be taught in the public schools. George H. Himes, the venerable state historian, has worked faithfully more than a quarter of a century, not for Douglas alone, but every county in the state. Efforts to aid him will be appreciated by the children, grand-children and great-grand-children of early pioneers.

Now is a good time to purchase a home in St. Johns. The Peninsula is even now offering many inducements to investors. Capital needs encouragement. State facts to prospective homebuilders and business enterprises. Do a little honest boasting and you will be surprised with either direct or indirect results.

Peninsula Chapter Royal Arch Masons will be entertained by Sun-side chapter Friday evening. A team will be excited, refreshments served and an interesting program rendered. If you are familiar with the stone that was rejected, your presence will be appreciated.

A six-year-old lad at Beaverton swallowed a brass latch of an automobile door. Surgeons removed the obstruction and the boy with an appetite for Ford flivvers will recover.

Rev. Kimball Clark, who has supplied Rev. Hull's pulpit at the Congregational church so acceptably, will preach again next Sunday morning and evening, June 26. A most cordial invitation to all members and the public is extended. Special music both morning and evening.

The Oregon Grape Club met with Mrs. Katherine Teeling, 219 W. Tyler street Wednesday of last week for an all day session. A delicious dinner was served at noon and covers were laid for 32. The day was spent in sewing and a good time in general was had.

F. W. Valentine is having his former blacksmith shop at the corner of Charleston and Ivanhoe streets thoroughly overhauled and placed in a greatly improved condition. Mr. Valentine has also had his residence on Charleston street altered and improved.

A former member of Portland police, has been fined for making insulting remarks to young ladies on the streets. He knows better; no excuse for him. He should have paid the law's extreme penalty.

Monday evening a gang of marine workers attempted to ambush non-union men at Linton dock. The strikers attacked policemen. One was killed and seven are in jail.

Wedding bells are ringing on Polk street. There was a shower in honor of Miss Mildred Berry Monday evening. Miss Berry received many useful presents.

W. L. Markle left Wednesday morning for White Salmon, Wash., where he expects to remain a couple of weeks or more looking after orchard interests.

The longest day in the year made its appearance Tuesday, and yet there has been very little summer so far.

Wm. Preston has purchased the Methodist church parsonage and church edifice on Leavitt and Syracuse streets.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Helms and his mother are taking a short visit to the seaside. They expect to remain a few weeks.

Archie Smock and other St. Johns boosters met the Portland Creditors Association Monday upon their return from San Francisco. A trip over the highway was among the many attractions and was enjoyed by all. Oregon scenery never tires a native or adopted son or daughter.

The old blacksmith shop at the corner of Alta and Ivanhoe streets is being razed, as is also the building at the corner of Philadelphia and Ivanhoe streets. Both have served their days of usefulness and in the interests of appearances are being removed.

Before being in a hurry to attend sales in Portland, read weekly announcements of home merchants in The Review. Keep every dollar in St. Johns possible. We all have use for it. Portland is able to take care of itself.

Chas. O'Brien of Clearfield, Pa., was a pleasant caller at the home of the editor Tuesday. Mr. O'Brien is greatly taken up with this part of the world and may later decide to make it his permanent home.

The Community Club play, "The Dearest Skule," at the Y. W. C. A. building this, Friday, evening will no doubt be very entertaining. The cast is composed of local people. Admission 25 cents.

Miss Kathryn Dearing, of whom mention was made last week, has returned to her home in Oakland, Oregon. Miss Dearing says St. Johns is ideal in every respect.

Mrs. Cole has returned to St. Helens, after enjoying a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Chambers, on Willamette boulevard.

Two vessels have mysteriously disappeared on the Atlantic seaboard. Indications point to the work of pirates.

The seaman's union in New York has voted to continue the strike

The Pioneers' Meeting

The meeting of the pioneers of St. Johns was a very interesting one. The subject of the naming of the different schools was freely discussed. None of those who took part in the discussion seemed satisfied with the now named schools. After a long talk by Mr. Monahan, Mr. Chipman and others, it was decided that a committee of one be chosen to see what could be done to place the names of those who had done something for the town at large in giving a name to whom honor was due. Mr. Monahan was elected to that office by a unanimous vote. Many new names were enrolled, namely—Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. Alta Smith, Mrs. Sadie Gatzmyer, Mrs. E. Monahan, Mrs. Ethel Gates, Miss Kathryn Scott. A very pleasant time. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows: President, Mrs. T. J. Monahan; vice-president, L. B. Chipman; chaplain, T. J. Monahan; rector, treasurer, Mrs. C. H. Thayer; rector, secretary, Mrs. A. J. Hanson. The meeting closed with a fine lunch, served by the new members. Those who failed to respond to roll call missed one of the best gatherings of the society.—A. J. H., Secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Lear and children of Goldendale, Washington, were week end guests of Mr. Lear's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lear.

The Pythian Altruistic Club will meet Tuesday, June 28th, at the home of Mrs. Carl Beckman, 815 South Princeton street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brooks and children of Seattle are visiting old-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Moore.

Mrs. A. Wilson Summoned

Mrs. Lydia M. Wilson, wife of Andrew Wilson, and a resident of Independence for more than 45 years, died at the family home here Tuesday, after an illness of approximately four years, during which time she has been tenderly cared for by members of her family. Funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon, the pastor, Dr. Charles H. Dunsmore officiating. Interment was made in the Odd Fellow cemetery. The pall bearers were Al Cook, D. E. Fletcher, J. S. Bohannon, C. M. Baker, W. G. Grant and G. G. Walker. Beside her husband Mrs. Wilson is survived by three daughters: Mrs. J. W. Ball and Mrs. E. A. Simmons of Portland, and Mrs. S. A. Green of Cottage Grove, twelve grand-children and two great grand-children. Mrs. Wilson, whose maiden name was Lydia M. Crouse, was born May 8th, 1849, in Wayne county, Ohio. She was married to Mr. Wilson September 9, 1874, in Nebraska, coming to Oregon that same year, two years later to Independence, where she has since resided. Mrs. Wilson was a member for many years of the Presbyterian church and of the Woman's Relief Corps. She was a woman of many endearing qualities and was held in high esteem by a large number of neighbors and other friends. Among those who came here to attend the funeral services were: Mrs. F. A. Green of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Simmons, Mrs. W. F. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Simmons, L. K. Simmons, Kenneth L. Simmons, Miss Vesta Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ball, Roy Ball, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Wilson, all of Portland.—Independence Enterprise.

Fourth of July Celebration

The celebration to be held at St. Johns July 4th is scheduled to be a decided success. This is to be one of its kind not soon forgotten. Every effort is being exercised at this time to accomplish that which we are striving for, success, and by the cooperation of all, we will no doubt achieve greater things, as step by step through the ages which have marked the progress of the world, we find that man has moved onward and upward through the comradeship of fraternity and cooperation. The homogeneity of such actions in human life encompasses the strength which makes for intellectual advancement, social uplift and the urgent desire to greater achievements. Man cannot live unto himself alone, and this truism finds fruitage and realization, not only in the realities of life, but in the attainments thereof. In this spirit, exercising the same precautions towards the frailties of others that we may expect for ourselves, as well as our mission to encourage a more intimate acquaintance and closer brotherhood, that will yield a tremendous and powerful influence for general good. From every standpoint we must strive to make ourselves deserving of the popular favor to be enjoyed. The best satisfaction is the experience of the man who, at some sacrifice, has done that which benefits his fellow, and the best acknowledgement and reward for such an act is to be found in the sincere appreciation of the favor on the part of the recipient. At this time it is our desire to remind you of the fact that our band is progressing nicely, but a shortage of instruments has to be contended with; and, again a general appeal for more numbers in the band to take part for the Fourth of July event, especially. The band at this time consists of some 20 pieces or more, but saxophone, clarinet and cornet players are wanted. If you can play an instrument of any kind and have none of your own, then make it known to us through our secretary at 209 South Jersey street. He will gladly take up the matter with you at once in order that you may participate in this good work. The band will practice Monday and Wednesday evenings at the St. Johns skating rink, where it would be possible for you to communicate with the band manager in person.—Publicity Manager Fraternal Boosters.

Father says—
"No slippers tonight!"

"I've worn these Wurskus since morning, and I have had a hard day, too. But my feet are as comfortable as I'd want them to be. Even if the Smiths dropped in I wouldn't change. I got the Wursku habit from son, and he got it at that camp he liked so well last summer."

The Wursku habit is also a saving habit. More people find it so every year. Hood Wurskus are famous for their durability and comfort. Heavy mail-bag duckuppers, grey-tire-tread soles. Hood patented pneumatic heels—you walk on air.
