Little Martha Walker was honor guest at a most delightful birthday party given at her home, 420 Oswego street, June 28. Covers were laid for ten little guests at a birthday cake, with three little candles, and ice cream was greatly enjoyed by all. The most interesting feature of the afternoon was when a package arrived from the old country, from the little girl's grandmother, was opened and enjoyed by all. The afternoon was spent with games and plays on the lawn. Those present were: Margaret and Anna Noce, Jack Noce, Lillian Muhn, Wesley Nichols, Foster Ferguson, Ethel Bosie, Marian and Nora Cooley, Marian Walker, Mrs. M. Ferguson, Mrs. J. Noce, Mrs. Frank Walker, Mrs. S. Peterson, great-grandmother of the little girl.

The Western Cooperaige is running a full day and light night crew. Over 300 men and 50 women are employed. A large portion of the output goes to Eastern states and the Pacific Coast. Business in the cooperaige line is gradually improving.

"The Deestrick Skule"

"The Deestrick Skule," the play given under the auspices of the St. Johns Community Club in the Y. W. C. A. building last Friday evening, was a decided hit. The building proved wholly inadequate to accommodate the number desiring to see the performance, and quite a number were unable to gain admittance. P. A. Getz instructor of James John High School, was the author and coach of the play, and it was a clever and wittily constructed production. Some of the costumes worn were certainly wonderful to behold in this day and age. Judging from the plaudits and merriment created the audience was highly pleased with the entertainment provided. The program follows:

Visited Sunnyside

Last Friday evening the following members of Peninsula Chapter Royal Arch Masons visited Sunnyside chapter: W. A. Carroll, C. B. Russell, Fred Leftwich, J. S. Kenney, W. L. McGuire, H. G. Gazley, Lee Johnson, Wiley Dyer, J. O. Bailey and D. E. Vernon. Mrs. Vernon started with the companions, but upon second reflection the council recalled the fact that nothing feminine ever entered the sacred portals of King Solomon's temple or the second tabernacle. Therefore she was tenderly cast aside on East Main street, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. von Groenwald, until a seasonable hour, when she was picked up by companions and conveyed safely home. Attorney Bailey was one of the trio exalted to the royal arch. Mr. Bailey hoped to win favors from home companions, but was doomed to disappointment. He finally arrived home safely after making a pilgrimage through Damascus and other places in the Holy Land. The hospitality of Sunnyside chapter is too well known to require further comment at this time. Companions from there are frequent visitors in St. Johns, and members of Peninsula chapter always feel at home in the magnificent temple at Sunnyside.

A Portland boy was run down and injured by a heavy truck. High weeds were responsible for the accident; the crossing was hidden. Later in the season over ripe foliage may also cause untold losses by the devouring element. The police force are even now taking a list of weed-grown lots. Better get busy before the copper on the beat gets your number.

A bouncing baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Armstrong, 908 Oswego street, Saturday, June 18th.

Recital Was a Fine Success

The violin recital given by pupils of Elmer Sneed, the well known concert violinist and teacher, at the James John High school auditorium Friday evening of last week, was immensely enjoyed by all present. Each pupil demonstrated in a most pleasing manner the results of the instructions they had received, and played like finished artists. Each pupil played a solo from memory, with a fine interpretation and beautiful tone. Two selections were played with ten violins. Many in the audience spoke of the beautiful bowing, as they all bows worked exactly in unison. The audience seemed to appreciate every number, as all remained perfectly quiet during the entire performance. After the conclusion of the pupils' program Mr. Sneed rendered several solos which proved him to be a great master of the violin. Those who were present need no further evidence as to his ability as a concert violinist and teacher. Miss Margaret E. Smith was at the piano and accompaniment for all performers. Pupils who took part in the recital, names and solos they appear in the following program:

- Song of the Sea Shell—Krogman-Grunu..... Thelma Brusch
