

ST. JOHNS REVIEW

The Fourth at St. Johns

July Fourth was celebrated in a good old fashioned way in St. Johns. In spite of the fact that many people took advantage of the two and one-half day holiday period to seek the country for an outing, the crowd in St. Johns was fairly good. And they were kept interested from the time the parade started in the morning until the sports had been concluded late in the afternoon. The parade was headed by the Band and it discoursed several pleasing selections in excellent style along the way. The leading features of the parade was the Ashby emigrant wagon that was gotten up in the good old way, with none of the features lacking to make it typical of the historical old emigrant wagon of bygone days. Another feature of the parade was the float containing the Goddess of Liberty, Miss Virginia Siefert, who was selected by vote, and her maids.

A fine float was that of Mr. and Mrs. Southmayd which was composed of rare rugs, screens, linens, silks, tables and other highly interesting articles, worth many dollars, and were secured by Mrs. Southmayd during her eight years stay in India. Mrs. Southmayd has been a great traveler and has been twice around the world. The exhibit aroused a great deal of interest.

The program at the band stand near the city hall after the parade was quite interesting and listened to attentively by a goodly sized audience. Dr. H. F. Jones, president of the day, gave a neat opening address. "The Star Spangled Banner" was sung by the gathering, followed by invocation by Rev. W. E. Kloster. A pleasing solo was sung by Mr. Butterfield. Hon. T. J. Cleeton, orator of the day, gave an interesting and inspiring discourse. The reading of the Declaration of Independence by Mrs. J. N. Bartlett was rendered in a splendid manner. "America" was sung by the assembly. A. G. Johnson gave the closing address in a few well chosen and appropriate words. The band rendered several pleasing selections that were greatly enjoyed. Miss Thompson and Miss Tooley presided at the piano.

In the afternoon the various sports took place on Ivanhoe and Syracuse streets. A list of the prize winners will appear in next week's issue.

List of Contributors

It is the desire of this organization at this opportune time to acquaint everyone of the fact that the Fourth of July celebration has been a decided success. Owing to the handicap under which we have labored, it was impossible to do exactly as was planned, but every effort has been exerted to accomplish that looked for by all—a grand, old-time celebration in honor of our country and all concerned.

Following is a list of those making cash donations for the celebration:

THE COMMUNITY CLUB

The St. Johns Community Club held its regular meeting at the V. W. C. A. building Tuesday evening, and then adjourned for the summer vacation, the next regular meeting to be held the first Tuesday evening in September. A communication was read from Commissioner Pier in reply to a request that band concerts be held in St. Johns, stating that no funds were available for band concerts in Portland this summer. J. N. Edlefsen reported that the site selection committee of the 1925 Fair would visit the proposed site here and give it full consideration. The project of a band for the Community Club was taken up and discussed. Mr. Monahan stated that a band was a fine thing for an organization to have and that if one be organized for the Community Club, it should consist of members of the Club only, and not of members of any other organization. Several musicians were present, including Mr. Gaar and Mr. Davis, who made remarks concerning such organization. It was finally decided that a band be organized, with Mr. Gaar as director and A. E. Jones, manager. Mrs. Shaw stated that the basement of the building would be at the disposal of the organization for band practice purposes. Mr. Edlefsen suggested that a communication be directed to the school board, urging that work proceed as rapidly as possible toward the construction of the new high school building here. Mr. Edlefsen also said he believed it a good plan to repeat the production of "The Deceitful Skule" this Fall, and he paid Mr. Getz, the author and coach, a high compliment for his efficient service and the fine play he produced. Mr. Getz was also given other fine compliments for his clever production and valuable assistance. A communication was directed to be sent to the Commissioner of Public Works, asking that West Burlington street be placed in better condition. Dr. Borden spoke on cooperation of the entire community in getting the things needed in St. Johns. On motion of A. E. Jones it was unanimously decided that an invitation be extended the Fraternal Boosters to meet with Community Club at its meeting in September.

Last Sunday evening at a specially called meeting of the members and supporters of the Congregational church a call was extended to Rev. D. Elmer Nourse of La Jara, Col., to become its pastor. The new man comes with good recommendations as an organizer and worker with young people, having successfully organized two Community churches in Colorado, and served as pastor-counselor of the San Luis Valley District of Christian Endeavor. For the last two years Mr. Nourse has been president of the Colorado Association of Community Churches. In addition to his regular work he was also chaplain of the Colorado Soldiers' and Sailors' Home. The Congregational church is looking forward to a progressive community program. Mr. Nourse brings with him an experience of six years in various forms of community work. With the hearty cooperation which is promised by pastor and people the church proposes to put on a progressive community program, which will touch and serve the life of the community at every point. There will be regular services in the church Sunday. Sunday school at 10:00. Morning worship at 11:00. Evening service at 7:45. You will find a real welcome at all of the services.—Reported.

The Crater lake season opened the first of this month. On account of snow it will be impossible to reach the rim of the lake for several days.

Members of Laurelwood Rebekah Lodge, No. 160, will meet Wednesday evening, July 13th, at 7:30 o'clock for the transaction of business, after which there will be joint installation of officers of Laurel Lodge, No. 186, I. O. O. F., and Rebekah Lodge. All Odd Fellows invited. A picnic will be held at the Odd Fellows' Home, Sunday, June 10, by the same lodges. Meet at the hall at 9:30 o'clock with well filled baskets and a determination to make the day a pleasant one for all the inmates of the home. Automobiles are needed for the trip.—Anna Canright, Recording Sec'y.

Saturday evening, July 9th, Grand High Priest W. R. Bilyeu of Albany and other grand officers will constitute Peninsula chapter and install the officers. A delegation from Portland, Washington and Sunnyside chapters will be present. All Royal Arch Masons wherever dispersed are earnestly requested to attend. Refreshments will be served and the Sacred words: "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell in unity," will be beautifully exemplified. High Priest Carroll has been presiding officer in all the York Rite bodies and a few remarks of interest to the craft will be appreciated.

It was mother's birthday and it is customary for us children to give her a little present. Although mother was in bed, just recovering from pneumonia, I went to purchase the gift. The surprise was on me, for when I entered the little bedroom I saw mother sitting up in bed. Dear friends had gathered with lovely gifts and a delicious birthday cake, including other goodies. A new way of celebrating a birthday.—Mother's nurse, Beaty Chadwick.

Exports from the Columbia river have made a leap upward of fifty per cent. Trade from river ports for the year will total about $8,000,000. Puget Sound business has dropped.

Mrs. M. E. Champaign of St. Louis, Mo., arrived in St. Johns, Monday, June 27th, to visit Mrs. L. Patriquin, her schoolmate of 60 years ago. They were raised in Momen county, Ill. This is the first meeting in over 50 years; they are enjoying the visit of a lifetime, living over in memory their old school days, at 126 South Fox street, St. Johns, the home of F. H. Woolley. Mrs. Woolley is a niece of Mrs. Patriquin.

W. L. McGuire, foreman of the Peninsula Lumber Company, is proud to be favorably mentioned in the Review. He also wishes to call attention to the fact that the superintendent, Mr. McMillan, has seven children. It may be that Good Old Noah was looking on the present generation with a prophetic eye when he gave the command on Mount Ararat: "Be fruitful; multiply and replenish the earth."

Up to the first of this month the Portland police made 77 arrests for which the penalties amounted to $1120 in fines and 332 days in jail. The moral squad made a total of 60 investigations. The officers have been very active the past few days, and the above report is a result of a determined effort. "We have just commenced," says Sargeant Keegan.

Rudolph Samuelson of Portland was killed in automobile accident near Salem, July 3rd. An infant child of the driver, Mr. Ramp, of Brooks was seriously injured. Mrs. Roy R. Westley of St. Johns suffered severe injuries. Her four-year-old daughter was slightly injured.

H. C. Philipps, formerly connected with the Multnomah theatre, now manager of the Gay theatre on Mississippi avenue; his son, a Portland attorney, and F. C. Stinson have returned from the headwaters of the Nehalem, where they were flirting with the finny tribe.

Mrs. S. A. Johnson has left some exceptionally fine White Rose potatoes at this office. One bill will make a meal for a large family. Plant 355 hills, then laugh at the world and its shams for twelve solid months.

The fruit harvest is on all over the Willamette valley. Canneries are getting a large tonnage of cherries and berries. Many Eastern shipments are being made.

Give the gardens half a chance and residents of this city will have plenty of vegetables. The hoe and the sprinkler are bread winners. Keep them busy.

Tamburica a Unique Instrument

Jugo-Slav Orchestra at Chautauqua Feature Their Own Native Sweet-Toned Instrument

Probably no native instrument brought to America in recent years has attracted wider attention than the tamburica. It embodies some of the best features of the mandolin, banjo and guitar, but is distinctive from each of these in many respects. The range of music is almost limitless. In volume the music produced by the six players comprising the Jugo-Slav Tamburica Orchestra is equal to that of an orchestra of eight or nine players using other string instruments.

Throughout Eastern, Southern and Middle Western states the concerts of the Jugo-Slav Orchestra have been acclaimed as musical events of unusual interest and value. Their Chautauqua tour of the Coast under Ellison-White direction will unquestionably add to the splendid reputation already gained. They will give a full afternoon concert on the fourth day and a prelude in the evening.
