A. W. Markle, Editor
Published Friday of Each Week
404 N. Jersey St. Phone Col. 321
Subscription price $1.50 per year.
The Review is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Mr. Kennedy is having a handsome residence erected at 525 South Ivanhoe street.
The participants in the Community club play, "The Deceitful Skule," will picnic with their families at Scappoose Creek on Labor Day. An enjoyable time is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster of Sweet, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster and daughter Alice have returned from a week at Seaside. Mrs. Foster is a sister of Mrs. George Foss of Wisconsin.
Miss Leona Foy, the talented pianist and instructor, left Tuesday for a week's stay at Government Springs, about a dozen miles from Carson, Washington.

Miss Margaret Vinson, who has been in Los Angeles for some time, is on a visit at the home of her mother on South Ivanhoe street. She has been ill for the past several days but is now improving.
We want to thank our many friends and business men of St. Johns who gave so willingly to myself and children's support at this time, through Mr. Hartford. I'm sure it was so kind of you all. Thanking you again.—Mrs. Franklin.

At the St. Johns Community Church, Congregational, Sunday: Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Morning worship at 11. Subject: "The Moral Demands of Christ." Eight p. m.: "Meeting Christ Without Shame." A real live song service, led by the orchestra, will precede every evening service. You will find a hearty welcome.—Reported.

Miss Georgia Rich has purchased a home at 525 Ainsworth avenue, a large commodious 8-room house and garage. Ainsworth avenue is one of the attractive wide streets of the city, with its grass center and shade trees. Miss Rich has a number of pupils taking a course in pedagogy. Miss Bratzel of Gresham, formerly of St. Johns, who has a large class. Miss Ethel Knoff of Clackamas, and Miss Joanna James of Rainier. These have been heard in recitals in St. Johns. Miss Rich will have her studio as usual at 410 Oswego street for the convenience of the St. Johns pupils.

The new Pioneer Methodist church banquet and bazaar, which is to be held September 14th, is receiving unusual response from the local business and professional men. Up to the 30th of August 175 tickets had been sold, so if you want a ticket better not delay until the reservations are exhausted. The many handsome and useful articles which are being contributed to the bazaar will be exhibited ten days before the time when they will be sold in the unoccupied store building of the Peninsula National Bank block on South Jersey street. A unique feature that has been worked out by the committee is the receiving of donation work by professional men. Dr. S. A. Mulkey will give for the benefit of the church a set of upper or lower artificial teeth, good as the natural, valued at $35. Dr. F. A. Sandifur will give oculist service. Rev. W. E. Kloster will perform marriage ceremony. All these fees to be given to the church. Thomas Autzen has donated the paneling for the fireplace club room.

On Wednesday night of this week the St. Johns Community Church, Congregational, a reception was given for the new pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Nourse. Mr. Stadelman presented the new members, after which Rev. Mr. Kloster, pastor of the St. Johns Pioneer M. E. church, gave a welcome in behalf of other churches. His words were filled with a spirit which speaks for a most happy cooperative relation between the churches. Rev. Mr. Constant, president of the Portland Association of Congregational churches, spoke the welcome for the occasion, after which Rev. Mr. Nourse responded with a few words of appreciation of the spirit shown by those present. Mr. Oliver played a violin solo which was thoroughly enjoyed by all, and Mr. Fassett sang in his characteristic way, "Out Where the West Begins," and responded very generously with an encore. The ladies then presented their part of the program which consisted of fruit salad, ice cream, cake and coffee—needless to say this was enjoyed by all. Judging from the spirit manifested by the pastor and people the church is prepared to step out into an active, progressive program which will strengthen the religious life of the community.

Y. W. C. A. Notes
Mrs. J. M. Shaw returned Sunday from the Northwest Conference at Seabeck, Wash.
All the girls' clubs will begin next Tuesday and meet on the regular days at the usual hours.
The Y. W. C. A. wants to cooperate with all the churches, young peoples' societies, employment for girls and women and all community affairs where it may be helpful.
On account of the growing activities at the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Mabel Robertson has been employed by the Central Association as assistant secretary.
Evening classes will begin in October.

Neighbor John H. Bateman has left us. Through life he wielded with a strong arm an ax of uprightness. By his sturdy courage and perseverance he has set through life an example which would be well for any one to follow.

Whereas, The Almighty God has seen fit to call from our midst our esteemed neighbor, we of St. Johns Camp, No. 733, Woodmen of the World, extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family and friends in this their hour of bereavement.

We trust their grief will be lessened by firm faith in God and a strong determination to take up the struggle with the same courage and perseverance displayed through life by our departed neighbor.
R. G. Greene, C. A. Kreyer, J. H. Hodges, Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee and family are moving to 524 Mohawk street.

Rev. Jos. Hoberg and granddaughter, Mrs. J. R. Rogers of McMinnville were guests at the home of Rev. C. P. Gates last Friday. Rev. Hoberg is the grandfather of Rev. Gates and is in his 94th year.
On August 22nd Rev. Mr. Rosell and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Green, 810 Smith avenue. Mr. Rosell is pastor of the Christian church at Monmouth. He has also been pastor of the Christian church at Grand Rapids, Michigan, where Mrs. Green was an active member before coming West, recalling pleasant memories of the association of former years. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whistler, neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Green and esteemed friends of Mr. Rosell, made up a very pleasant dinner party. Mr. Rosell is among the successful ministers in this state.
