---The Steady Return---

The Cash Grabateria Grocery was the first on the field to establish a store that eliminated all the red tape of soliciting orders at your back door, employment of a bookkeeper to figure your account, cut out the any-time-in-the-day-delivery and a collector to chase after you to get you to pay your bill.

The innovation took from the start and the steady return of the customers tells the story of our ability to carry a splendidly assorted stock of all the good things for the table. You can sense the prosperity of the store the minute you step in to it.

It has come because we have given the public what they want at the prices they want, deliver at a regular hour and deal with you as we would be dealt with were we the customer and you the store owner.

Mrs. Robert Kreckel and son and Mrs. Bueerman are enjoying a very pleasant outing on the cranberry ranch of Rev. Bueerman at Seaview. Mr. Kreckel will join them later and all return on Labor Day.

This office is under obligations to many friends for contributing news items. The effort will be appreciated if copy reaches this office as soon as possible. Last week a few important items were left over because it was impossible to handle them until this issue.

Krein Kreinz, residing near Philomath, has just passed his one-hundred and first birthday. Evidently this venerable patriarch takes little interest in the following immortal lines: "I would not live always; I ask not to stay. Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way."

Mrs. Janette Clute has just returned from Seattle, where she has been visiting for the past week with her son, George L. Clute and family of 122 N. Fox street, where she has been for the past three months. She is on her way to California. Her home is in Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Williamson are enjoying a most delightful outing in the White Salmon valley. They are both great lovers of fishing and the White Salmon river is furnishing them a splendid field for the sport. They treated the editor and his family while they were in White Salmon to a dozen fine large rainbow trout that were delicious. Dave and his wife are so enthused with the White Salmon country that they have purchased some land there and will build a cottage wherein to spend their Summer vacations.

Don't send your printing out of town.

"Billy" Davis is back from the Boy Scout Camp at Wahtum Lake, looking as though the outing fully agreed with him.

W. T. Hartford will leave today for Spokane and Montana, as he has a large ranch and mining interests in Montana to look after.

Remember the banquet and bazaar at the Pioneer Methodist church on Charleston street, September 14th. Keep the date in mind and attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Rice and charming little daughter, Louise, are spending the week end and Labor Day at their cottage at Cannon Beach.

Mrs. Wayne Menear and son are here from Foster, Oregon, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lawrence, at 827 North Central avenue.

The hard surfacing of North Kellogg street leading to the Terminal is a vast improvement and highly appreciated by all who drive down that way.
