H. T. Stevens, 807 North Kellogg street, father of Jay Stevens, former Portland fire marshal, was injured Sunday night when he was struck by an automobile driven by P. M. Townsend, 872 Oberlin street, at the corner of Fessenden and Jersey. Mr. Stevens received cuts on the hand and head and a sprained ankle, but was not rendered unconscious. He was taken to his home by Mr. Townsend. Jay Stevens recently recovered from injuries sustained in an automobile accident in California, which threatened for a time to be fatal.

Hardly a day passes that some atrocious murder has not been reported. And the funny thing about the whole crime wave is the fact that soon after the apprehension of criminals they show a ferocious tendency toward insanity.—Roseburg News-Review.

The right to brew your own beer in your own home has been established by Congress and no one can search your premises unless there is evidence of your selling the article brewed. What a breath of relief will go up from many La Grande homes!—La Grande Observer.

Prune pickers in the Carlton, Yamhill and Sheridan districts will be paid on the basis of 6 cents a box, with a 2 cent bonus if they remain until the end of the season.

A doctor says we should have pleasant thoughts while eating. But we and the proprietor of the place can't both have pleasant thoughts.—Ex.

Between three and four hundred women and girls are employed peeling pears at the Eugene Fruit Growers' Association.

No matter what you pay for a house, the joy of life can't be included in the specifications.

Hood River will harvest approximately 115 carloads of high grade apples this season.

NOTICE OF MEETING OF COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

Notice is hereby given that on Monday, September 12, 1921, the Board of Equalization of Multnomah County will attend at the office of the County Assessor, at the Court House in Portland, and publicly examine the assessment rolls for the year 1921, and correct all errors in valuation, description or qualities of lands, lots or other property, assessed by the County Assessor. And it shall be the duty of persons interested to appear at the time and place appointed. If it shall appear to such Board of Equalization that there are any lands or lots or other property assessed twice, or incorrectly assessed as to description or quantity, and in the name of a person or persons not the owner thereof, or assessed under or beyond the actual cash value thereof, said Board may make proper correction of the same. If it shall appear to such Board that any land, lots or other property assessable by the assessor are not assessed, such Board shall assess the same at the full cash value thereof.
