The REVIEW is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

The banquet and bazaar given in the handsome new edifice of the Pioneer Methodist church, now under construction on Charleston street, adjoining the St. Johns library, Wednesday afternoon and evening, was a splendid and unqualified success. The large number of donors and the cooperation displayed in assisting to make the affair the success it proved to be demonstrated the fine unanimity of the people. The attendance was gratifying to the members of the church, who spared no efforts that would in any way contribute to its success, and more than 300 tickets were sold. The banquet was elegant, appetizing and satisfying. It was served admirably and the culinary ability of the ladies of the church was never more clearly exemplified. A delightful program was rendered following the banquet, in which entertaining and inspiring talks were given by Rev. Kloster, toastmaster; Rev. W. W. Youngson, Dr. Mills, editor of the Pacific Advocate, Dr. Sandifur and Rev. Irvine were called upon. Solos were beautifully rendered by Lieutenant Crane and Mrs. Gabriel Pullin. The handsome architecture of the church, its well planned and conveniently arranged compartments and the progress that has been made towards completion were all inspected and highly commented upon by many of the visitors. After the program had been completed the bazaar was the object of considerable interest, and there were numerous articles of a handsome, useful and substantial nature.

The Sifton school is progressing with its usual good attendance. The following teachers are in charge: Nellie M. Stevens, principal; Opal Hagenbach, eighth grade; Blanch Reser, seventh grade; Hilda Toering, sixth grade; Emily Lindahl, fifth grade; Daisy D. Dahl, fourth grade; Mae Cooper, third grade; Florence A. O'Brien-Hickam, 2 B and 3 A grades; Myrtice E. Fowler, 2 A and 1 B grades; Frances Degerstedt, 1 A grade.

The beloved Florence O'Brien Hickam was welcomed on opening day with tears of joy. She had expected to spend her vacation in California and had embarked on the ill-fated Alaskan. Her companions were all swept into the ocean and she was the last woman to leave the boat. Mr. Laurence Hickam met her upon her arrival in San Francisco and they were married the following week. Reported.

The ladies of the W. R. C. will give a dinner Saturday, September 17th, at I. O. O. F. hall in honor of department officers, comrades and members of the W. R. C. and their friends. Don't forget the date. It is with regret we learn of the illness of our beloved president of the W. R. C., Sister Bigelow, and a speedy recovery is hoped for.—Press Cor.
