Cards of thanks notices are charged for at the rate of fifty cents each. Persons desiring to have such notices published should make a note of this.

"Johnnie," said the teacher, give me a sentence containing the word "notwithstanding." And Johnnie answered, "The man's trousers were worn out, but notwithstanding."

A depth of 2475 feet has been reached by the drill in the Lower Columbia Oil & Gas Company's well near Astoria, the showing of gas becoming stronger each day.

The radio laboratory at Oregon Agricultural College is now fully equipped and can send messages to any part of the United States. Regular courses in radio telegraphy are now being offered to students.

Henry Ford has $54,000,000 in a Michigan bank. And we are just as happy as Henry and will have just as good a time, too, with the $54 we have in a Dallas bank.—Polk County Itemizer.

The league for women voters wants more rights for women. Some Crane men will think that is funny, because they know they have no more rights to hand over.—Crane American.

According to a bulletin sent out by the Ohio Bankers' Association a sharp lookout should be kept for counterfeit $10 and $20 federal reserve notes which are now being circulated. The $10 note is drawn upon the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. It has the portrait of Andrew Jackson and is of the series of 1914. It is signed by D. F. Houston, secretary of the treasury, and by John Burke, treasurer of the United States. It is printed from zinc plates on two pieces of poor quality paper. A few silks threads are placed between the pieces, but the paper is too thick for them to show through. The workmanship is rather crude and the bill may easily be identified. The $20 note is drawn upon the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco and is signed the same as the $10 note. It is a straight photographic reproduction and no attempt is made to color the seal or the numbers. It is of a sepia color, from the printing process and should easily attract attention.

Ghosts, goblins and girls, all Girl Reserves, members of the St. Johns branch of the Y. W. C. A., met for a Hallowe'en frolic at the Y. W. C. A. building Monday evening. Black cats were here, there and everywhere and numerous Jack o' lantern faces gleamed and smiled down on the merry crowd. About 100 grade school girls, all in colorful costumes, led by the branch secretary, Mrs. J. M. Shaw, participated in the grand march. Members costumed as representatives of the "Klu Klux Klan in full regalia" were on hand, but were not needed to keep the peace. A program of songs and dances was given by different groups and a special solo dance by Margaret Holbrook. Games and refreshments followed. A large gathering of parents and friends attended and shared with the girls the pleasures of the evening. A party for the high school girl reserves was given last Saturday evening and proved to be a most enjoyable occasion. The advisors in charge of the different clubs at the St. Johns branch are all enthusiastic workers and they are doing much for the good of the girls in this neighborhood. Mrs. C. A. Morden is chairman of the St. Johns branch committee.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

From the time a big truck rolled up and invited the January class of '22 to get in, hosts and guests had a delightful time Saturday evening. It was an old time barn dance, with the girls in "Milking Maid" costumes and the boys in overalls. After riding for twenty miles the guests stopped at a dance hall gaily decorated in the customary cats, pumpkins, and corn stalks. Virginia reel and other square dances were danced to the music of violin and piano. Then hot beans, buns, pumpkin pie, apples, candy and cider proved a delightful supper for the dancers. After more fun the happy merry makers again climbed aboard the truck and with inspiring school songs and yells soon reached home. Miss Davis, faculty advisor for the seventh termers, and Mr. George, former member of the James John faculty, chaperoned the party.

Brilliant and varied were the costumes worn at the James John masquerade party Friday evening of October 28th. Goblins, fairies, clowns and sixteenth century ladies joined in the joyous reveling. Ghostly and harrowing noises of every description entertained the crowd the first part of the evening. After this there was dancing in the gym and games and fortune telling were played in the hall. A grand march followed for the awarding of the various prizes. Ena Pullen carried off the prize for the most beautiful costume; Gerald Acklin won the prize for the most effective costume, and Helen Bade, Nellie Bade and Merle Chowning won the prizes for the most original costumes. Tired clowns, gypsies, fairies, and goblins left the school house that night, but with a feeling that a red letter day in their school life had just passed.

YOUR GROCER HAS IT

To Residents of St. Johns and Vicinity GREETINGS--
I have bought the St. Johns store of the Feldstein Furniture Co. and am now sole owner, effective Oct. 31st. I have been impressed with Mr. Feldstein's successful method of merchandising furniture and equally impressed with the stable character and good buying judgment of St. Johns people.
I am making my home in St. Johns. I shall take personal charge of my business. I shall meet you people personally, both as a neighbor and a business man. I trust I shall prove acceptable as both. It is up to the people of St. Johns.
As a business man it will be my ambition to furnish your homes beautifully, sensibly and at reasonable cost to you. Like my predecessor I shall aim to sell much furniture quickly on short profits. I pledge myself to give you the BEST FURNITURE, the NEWEST BARGAINS, at the very LOWEST PRICES possible. As your neighbor I'm for everything that will make St. Johns more prosperous, pleasant and beautiful to live in. You are invited to visit my store. I await the pleasure of your acquaintance.

Here is the biggest thing that has ever happened in the manufacture of Ford-size Tires. Barney Oldfield has announced his New "999" Tires, made only in 30x3 and 30x3 1/2 sizes. He has knocked the stuffing out of Ford-size tire prices, without cutting the quality a bit. The "999" Oldfield Fire is of Standard Size, made with four ply 1 1/2 ounce fabric, and an excellent Non-Skid Block Tread.
