Wins Football Championship

The Bachelor Club was most successful in the fight for the silver cup, donated by Spalding's store for the championship team. During the season the local boys piled up a total of 65 points against a beggarly six points. This lone touch down was scored by Arleta in last Sunday's game—on a lucky fluke. The first game was at Pier Park with the tough Albina eleven, which ended—Bachelors, 16; Albina, 0. The second game was also played at Pier Park, the Bachelors whitewashing Sellwood 47 to 0. In the third game Oregon City and the club fought their four periods to a scoreless tie. The final game was played against Arleta on their home grounds, with their pet referee. Even so, the local boys won 12 to 6. The boys from St. Johns wish to express their appreciation of the stand Bill Steers of the Multnomah Club took for fair play. He acted as a check on Arleta referee and kept him from penalizing the club over their own goal line. "Slick's" educated toe sent Manager Brooks to bed with a nervous chill when he completed two drop kicks in the same period against Arleta. And "Battle" sure used his old "bean" when he returned Arleta's punt from their 20 yard line. "Fluff" Hiatt scooped it up and ran 35 yards to a touch down. "Huck's" playing speaks for itself—he's always good—good enough to be a California Bear. "Guff" is as good as they make them for plowing through an enemy's line. Dow Walker said "Scot" and "Grit" were the best ends in the city; we believe him. A great deal of credit for the success of the team goes to Coach "Dedo" Poff. He taught them to hit the line low and tight as long as they can stand up and see. "Fluff" Hiatt is a very busy man, but his old Bachelor Club spirit called him out to fight for the club in her hard games. He is one great foot ball player and knows the game from A to Z. Every man on the team deserves honorable mention. The club will play one more game on Thanksgiving Day with some out of town team. This game will be played at Pier Park and the proceeds will be used by the club boys for Christmas charity. It is hoped the whole town will turn out for this game. After that "Floy" Bugbee will muster in his fighting harps for basket ball if the local rink can be secured at a reasonable figure. The boys are not in the game for money; all they want is a chance to break even.—Reported.

The Oregon Grape Club met with Mrs. Ida Fershwiler, 1709 Willamette boulevard November 9th. The Club is to make two quilts for Mrs. Marchand. Enough blocks were pieced for one of the quilts that day. A fine dinner was served at noon, after which our meeting was called to order and minutes of last meeting read. The club will meet with Neighbor Weimer, 303 East Burlington December 14th, for an all day quilting. Don't forget the place and date. Those present were: Mesdames Armstrong, Effa Beam, Bell, Brice, Boyd, Bawley, Burson, Emma Beam, Corbett, Davis, Downs, Earl, Emerick, Fletcher, Ferschwiler, Jacobson, Killebrew, Kreyer, Lauth, McGregor, Marchand, Maxwell, Moore, May, Norris, Palmer, Russell, Stuhr, Teeling, Trout, Walker, Weimer, Ethel Armstrong, Bessie Lauth, Lillian Moore, Doris Earl, Naida May, Marie Trout, and Doris Palmer. We also had with us Mrs. Pierre Sircarmat of Aberdeen, Washington, an old time friend of Mrs. Marchand.—Reported.

Mrs. Hannah Cowles died November 14th at her home, 316 Smith avenue, of pneumonia. She was born near Gaston April 19th, 1855, and consequently was aged 66 years, 6 months and 26 days. For the past eight years she has resided in St. Johns. Surviving her are her husband, H. L. Cowles, and three sons and five daughters, as follows: Chester of Townsend, Montana; Elba and Willis Cowles of this city; Emily Churchill of Warren, Oregon; Mary Hanna of Sacramento, Cal.; Sarah Cowles, Bessie Coon and Ruth Testerman of Portland. The body was transferred to Gaston Wednesday for interment, the St. Johns Undertaking Co. in charge.

Mrs. Frank Gasser has returned from a visit with her parents at West Timber. Her sister, Miss Mabel Kellogg, returned with her.

Gobbler's Swan Song.

Gobbler-gobbler, how I wobble
When I think of my poor fate;
Every day the time grows nearer
For the old Thanksgiving plate.

Gobbler-gobbler, how I wobble
With the things I get to eat,
Just to get me plump and tender
For the old Thanksgiving treat.

Gobbler-gobbler, soon I'll hobble
To the execution place;
Then done up in chestnut dressing
The old Thanksgiving board I'll grace.

If we are wiser than our fathers in our philosophy of the relation of special providence to the contingencies of human life, are we better than they in our estimate of public facts and thanksgivings and our basic (ball) methods of their observances?

THANKSGIVING IN WAR TIMES

Soldiers in the Field Made Merry on Pork and Hard Tack, Washed
Down With Coffee.

"After the battle of Missionary Ridge," said Lieut. Col. J. A. Watrous, U. S. A., retired, "the work of getting rations and clothing to the needy army began."

"As the commander rode along our line there was a lull for a moment—a cessation of the cheers that greeted his approach—and he said:

"Tomorrow is Thanksgiving. You shall have a feast."

"By daylight the rations began to arrive. There were great piles of hard bread, rows of pork, coffee and sugar barrels."

"We had a Thanksgiving breakfast. It was the first full meal we had had for over a month. How we ground up that hardtack and those chunks of raw pork and poured down that good, black coffee!"

"That the dinner was the great meal. Nine of us chipped in to prepare it; other parties did very much as we did. The ground was our table. On a plate made of leaves there was a pile of hardtack. A barrel head was the most plate, and it was piled high with fat pork, well boiled. One of the boys had seized a large tin pail from a colored cook's outfit at a general's headquarters when the cook was not looking. This was full of hot coffee. We sat down like Turks, and while Bill was reaching for a cracker Sergeant Webster said:

"I'm in my old home in New York they always gave thanks for the year's blessings before beginning the feast. Shall we do so here today?" No one spoke. Bill laid down his cracker. Webster bowed his head, and so did the rest of us. I can't remember all he said, but he gave thanks for the hope of an early coming of peace and that our lives might be spared to see the country united and that we might return to our homes and loved ones."

"We went on eating without delay when Webster raised his head, but it was some time before a word was said. Bill was the first to speak:

"Sergeant, that was a nice vote of thanks you gave. It made me think of Sate and the baby. But how could you pray today when yesterday you gave Tom a push with your musket and said: 'D— you; keep in line.'"

Each Day Thanksgiving Time.

For the summer, for the spring,
For autumn leaf and winter rime,
For these, and many another thing,
We make each day Thanksgiving time.—Bertha Ten Eyck James.

Rev. Ralph C. McAfee spoke at the Community Church Sunday morning. He gave us some very practical thoughts along the line of Christian cooperation and made a most earnest request for support of the Portland Council of Churches program. In the evening Dr. J. K. Brown of San Francisco gave an address that did the heart of every man and woman present good. Dr. Brown was in missionary work for 38 years in Turkey. He has lived a very interesting as well as a useful life. Next Sunday morning we will observe Thanksgiving both in the sermon and the music. The choir will have two specials. The evening service will be in charge of the State Christian Endeavor Society. The meeting will be of special interest to young people. Music week will be observed in this church. The date is November 27th-December 4th. The services on Sunday, November 27th, will be with this in mind. The old familiar hymns will be sung. There will also be singing by the little folks and special music prepared by the choir.—Reported.

An interesting mass meeting under the auspices of Community Club was held in the auditorium of the high school building Wednesday evening, which was devoted to discussion of the 1925 Exposition and the tax measure to be voted upon Saturday. Interesting and inspiring addresses were made by Messrs. Naughton, Williams, Friede and Day, besides the following local people: Messrs. Bonham, Jones, Rice, Edliefsen, Carroll, Rev. Gates and Mrs. Tate. The features pertaining to the Exposition and the great advantages it would be to have the same in Portland were well taken care of, and it would seem that none could go away from the meeting not fully convinced that it is to the interest of all to vote in favor of the tax measure Saturday. President Monahan presided and also made some interesting remarks.

DEAR FOLKS---

I HAVE MOVED

--and I desire very much at this time to thank you for your liberal patronage which has made it necessary to acquire larger quarters.

Am now located One Door South of the Old Location in the space formerly occupied by the Bank of Commerce which affords more floor space, making it possible to give you better and quicker service.

You will find my policy will still be---

"GOOD STUFF AT THE RIGHT PRICE"

Even though we have expanded a trifle, and it is still my "constant effort to give you better merchandise at the lowest possible price," every day in the year. For this reason I held no so-called removal sale, the goods are all in the New Store For Sale at Prices as Low as are consistent with good business policies.

Thank You---

Do You Live In a Home or Just a House?

Four walls and a roof certainly does not make a home. Not being a preacher or a writer I'll pass up such mighty subjects as love, companionship, children, cats, and dogs and all the things of grief and joy that change a house into a home.

I'm going to stick to the subject—I know most about Furniture. A home without comfortable Chairs and Davenport, good Table and useful Beds would be a dreary place, wouldn't it?

The spirit or moral of the home, like so many other things is much influenced by the consideration given to our physical needs.

If kitchen furniture is selected with an eye to efficiency, with the idea of saving the time and energy of the housewife, she will find more time for beautifying the house and making it comfortable. She will find it easier to keep herself attractive and in good health. She will have more time for recreation and self improvement, more time for companionship of husband and children.

If living room and bedroom furniture are properly selected they will be comfortable as well as good looking or merely necessary. They who use them will enjoy their leisure moments, will find comfort by day and complete rest at night.

Such considerations in the choice of furniture will make the machinery of the home run smoothly and will add to the comfort and happiness of all concerned.

To get good furniture, comfortable furniture and good looking furniture, it is not necessary to pay fancy prices. Some people, of course like to pay fancy prices. They act as though they enjoyed lining somebody else's pocket with gold.

Now if I tell you that I can supply you with furniture as good in quality as stores across the river and save you big money at the same time, there's only one way for you to prove it—Come To My Store and See. Prove it with your own eyes.

You know furniture, you know it's worth. If I can't satisfy the home makers of St. Johns, I'll quit. I'll have to whether I want to or not.

I've got to make good here and I'll do it On Your Own Terms, by giving what you want and need at the price you'll pay. That's a fair platform, isn't it?
