

"Yes" or No Exposition

"Yes," November 19th or no Exposition! Definite decision has been made by the Oregon 1925 Exposition committee to go down the line for the $2,000,000 special tax measure on that platform and no other.

Conference after conference was held, and it was the united sentiment of the large group of prominent business men who are backing the Exposition project that the public must be given to understand that the special city election Saturday, November 19th, will be an ultimatum to the committee. That if the tax measure is approved they will go ahead prepared to launch a still more vigorous and extensive state-wide campaign for the $3,000,000 tax measure next Spring. But, if the vote on the tax proposition is adverse, the plan to continue agitation for an Exposition in 1925 will automatically die.

"We have weighed the matter with the utmost candor and with the best judgment at our command," explained Ira F. Powers, campaign chairman, "and we have come to the unalterable conclusion that the vote of November 19th will be accepted as a solemn mandate to the Exposition organization. It must be either the tax plan or no plan at all.

"Scores of leading citizens have been consulted; the history of the Fair plans to date have been outlined to them; we have shown the virtual impossibility of financing the stupendous enterprise through private subscription alone, and our campaign committee, our general exposition board and other citizens whose judgment we hold in high regard are all of the same mind. The Exposition cannot be financed except through the special tax plan which has been approved so strongly by the leading men of Portland and representative citizens of every section of the land.

"Many persons seem to have the idea we are bluffing when we say: 'No tax, no Exposition,' but we are not, and we want to serve notice here and now that our campaign organization will stand pat on that platform.

"It may be well to state, also, that we have sought to find some one who could present to us a practical alternative plan for financing the Exposition, and so far not a single plan has been presented to us that appeared to have the slightest chance in the world of supplanting successfully the special tax plan.

"We have, therefore, issued instructions to our entire staff of workers, to our speakers' bureau, to all auxiliaries, to our general publicity staff, that the public must understand exactly where we stand: 'No tax, no Exposition.'"

Let's have a dismotorment conference. Twelve thousand people were killed last year in motorcycle accidents. — Benton County Courier.

$50,000,000 in New Buildings!

A successful vote for the 1925 Exposition in city and State elections guarantees immediate pay rolls for Oregon!

The $6,000,000 we invest will be more than matched by millions from other states. U. S. Government and foreign nations. This, with other building construction to be released as soon as the Exposition is assured, means fully fifty million dollars in new buildings between now and 1925. Practically everybody who earns their livelihood in Oregon will get the benefit of this expenditure of money.

Permanent Prosperity Will Surely Follow

It will mean many years of "full dinner pails." Our present industries will be busier, and new industries will be attracted here. It will bring thousands of new people to settle our lands, which is what Oregon needs.

And Remember, the Cost is Very Small Compared with Benefits to be Obtained

The total city and State tax on a $1000 assessment is only $9.96. It can be paid in six installments.

BE SURE AND VOTE "YES" for the 1925 Exposition Nov. 19th.

VOTE FOR Oregon--1925 YES!
