Mr. Meier and his assistants will have the same thing to do in the State of Oregon as they have done in the City area area, Daughters of Veterans, of Portland. Let us pledge our selve to assist in all ways possible to bring about the realization of the idea of Mr. F. E. Beach. In all the propaganda distributed a site was not mentioned on account of that one fault which we are all subjected to, and that is selfishness. We all have the same idea; we want the fair as near our homes as possible. This is the one thing that which we are all subjected to, and that is selfishness. We all have the same idea; we want the fair as near our homes as possible. This is the one thing that which we are all introducing the following officers: President, Lucy Luce: J.
