Many beautiful Christmas windows in St. Johns.

A healthy trend is noted in the butter market throughout the state.

Work of pouring cement was commenced on the new high school building this week.

Mrs. Belle Graves is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. Patterson, in Mountain View, California.

In the corn belt of the Middle West a box of Oregon apples is worth eight bushels of corn.

It is reported that fifty new residences will be constructed in E. St. Johns the early part of next year.

After being idle two weeks undergoing repairs the Sellwood ferry is again in operation.

Subject for Christian Science services Sunday: Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?

Patrons of the local postoffice should be careful not to litter the lobby with scraps of paper and pieces of string.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Duhan, 816 N. Seneca, November 30th, a boy. Mrs. Duman was formerly Miss Mattie Kehler.

No need to go to Portland for Christmas shopping. St. Johns stores have a magnificent and abundant supply. Patronize them.

Miss Margaret Goddard, formerly with the Peninsula Hospital, was a St. Johns visitor this week. She has been in California and was on her way to Alaska.

J. R. Kerr, Mrs. Cramer, Richard Kaddy and Mr. Buckard, all of whom have been at the local hospital for treatment, are reported getting along nicely.

Some misguided rascal removed the generator from I. S. Flynn's machine while it was in his garage one evening last week. Certainly a shabby trick.

The "Battlemaids of the Kingdom" Sunday school class of the Methodist church will give a home made candy sale at Bonham & Currier's store Saturday, Dec. 17th, at 2 o'clock. Come and buy your Christmas candy.

A St. Johns citizen complains that a certain city daily which has published articles boosting other sites will not publish an article boosting the St. Johns site for the 1925 Exposition.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our friends for their sympathy extended to us during our recent bereavement; also for the beautiful floral offerings.—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Barrell and Family.

Two potatoes, one weighing two pounds and the other three, grown on Mowrey acres at Clackamas, have been attracting attention in the Review office window. They are beauties.

Muck & Son have the contract for delivering the sand and gravel for the new high school, also delivering all the material for the Medical school in Portland. Their trucks have been kept on the go constantly since last Spring.

The refrigerator steamer Woodarra has left Municipal Dock No. 4, carrying 69,462 boxes of fresh apples for the London market. She will take a few boxes at Seattle and finish with dried fruit in San Francisco.

W. A. Carroll and Ray Walls attended the annual banquet at Sunnyside Royal Arch Chapter last Friday evening. Officers for the ensuing year were installed. About 250 were present and a very delightful time is reported.

To secure the best service persons should mail outgoing parcels for Christmas now. Later, when less efficient help has been added to take care of the holiday business at different places, the service will naturally not be so good. Do it now.

Mrs. W. T. Hartford, who has been seriously ill for the past six or eight weeks, is now rallying nicely under the care of Drs. Jones and McChesney. Miss Florence Rease, a New York missionary, has been attending to her needs and administering prayer in her behalf.

H. W. Bonham, one of our most prominent business men and best boosters for the community, is on the sick list. His numberless friends hope for an early and complete recovery. No active local movement seems to be complete without Mr. Bonham's helpful presence and influence. At last report he was quite a little better, a fact all will note with a great deal of pleasure.
