Remember the needy.
 A merry Christmas to all.
 1921 will soon be a thing of the past.
 Mrs. Hartford is still slowly improving.
 The Federal grand jury is in session in Portland.

A. M. Warner is erecting a new residence on Leavitt street.

The days have begun to lengthen, but scarcely noticeable so far.

The last few days have been mighty hard on the wood pile.

We are pleased to state that H. W. Bonham is steadily improving.

Bring in your job printing. Do not wait until you are entirely out.

Reports from New York say trade is much better than a year ago.

David Oliver has taken out a permit for a fine residence at 105 Hudson street.

A magnificent Christmas tree adorns the lobby at the Peninsula National Bank.

Subject for Christian Science services Sunday: Christian Science Lesson for Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Gussie Human, aged 21, is in jail in Brooklyn, New York, charged with murder in the first degree. She is accused of killing her sweet-heart.

Petitions are being circulated for the hard surfacing of Ivanhoe street from Burlington to Richmond. Let this good example be emulated throughout the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Worden and family of Mist, Oregon, are spending the holidays with Mrs. Worden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Killebrew of N. Hartman street.

There will be no club meetings at the Y. W. C. A. in the afternoons, but on Wednesday evening the Y. W. C. A. Xmas party for club girls will be held. Also party for the high school club Saturday evening.

The members of the Baptist church will have Christmas services Sunday morning. Preaching at 11 a. m. at the Y. W. C. A. building. All members of the church are urgently requested to be present. Everybody cordially invited.—Rev. E. A. Leonard.

The Bachelor Club will be pleased to receive donations of clothing, groceries, fuel, money, etc., to be distributed to the needy of St. Johns. Leave at club rooms or call Columbia 578. The Bachelors are repeating their noble efforts of former years in spreading Christmas cheer where it is most needed.

You are a modern Samaritan when you Christmas seal your Christmas mail. A million tuberculosis people are falling by the wayside. They need your helping hand. Every dollar's worth of Christmas seals that you buy is a blow aimed directly at the white plague. Each penny seal brings the vision of victory over this life-robbing mauler nearer.

Mary E. Koenecke died at her home, 424 E. Richmond street Dec. 17th aged 58 years, 6 months and 17 days. Cancer and dropsy was the cause of her death. She had resided here about 8 years. Surviving her are five sons and two daughters. Funeral services were held Sunday at the chapel of the St. Johns Undertaking Co., Dr. H. F. Jones preaching the sermon. Interment took place at Mil City Monday.

Cement work for the foundations of the new James John high school was begun in the week just closed by George Jackson general contractor. The new school will cost approximately $240,000 and is to be ready for use at the beginning of the next school year. The main building now under construction is to be 200 by 200 feet in size, with two stories and basement of brick and concrete, with red pressed brick for the exterior walls. A boiler room 50 by 67 feet in size, of brick and concrete, is to be erected at the rear of the main building.
