

ST. JOHNS REVIEW

Death of Dr. S. C. Cook

Solomon C. Cook died at his home at 1002 Oswego street at 11:40 Saturday night, December 31st, 1921, his spirit taking its flight just a few minutes before the old year took its departure. He was born in Youngstown, Ohio, in 1854. Leaving the state of his birth, he moved with his family to Iowa, where he graduated from the Atton high school. In June, 1877, he graduated from the American Medical College at St. Louis, and from the Allopathic Medical School of Physicians in 1883. Dr. Cook was a practicing physician in Ellsworth and Rice counties, Kansas; in Warren county, Missouri; and Cowlitz county, Washington, extending over a period of more than thirty years, and retiring from his chosen profession on account of defective hearing. August 18, 1880, he was united in marriage with Sarah Elizabeth Darnell in Wentzville, Missouri, to which union was born two children, Mrs. C. L. Holmes, 302 Fessenden street, and Mrs. E. A. Blew, 1002 Oswego street. He united with the Methodist church in Rushton, Kansas, in 1893. In 1905 he moved with his family to St. Johns, where he had resided continuously ever since, taking active part in the life of this section of the city. Dr. Cook was a kind husband and father, a Christian gentleman and exemplary citizen, and active in all reforms for the welfare of the community. He served on the former city of St. Johns as councilman, where he was especially active in street improvements, and was also father of the free ferry movement. Surviving him are his widow, two daughters and seven grandchildren, besides five sisters and one brother, who reside in the Central states.

The funeral services were conducted in the Christian church, Tuesday, January 3d, at 1:30 p. m. Rev. W. E. Kloster delivering the

Pleasant Social Event

One of the smartest and most enjoyable social events of the season was given by Ye Merri Timers Club at the St. Johns branch Y. W. C. A. December 27th. Many of the college young people were home for the occasion. The building was artistically and beautifully decorated appropriate for the holiday season. Those present were: the Misses Arline Shaw, Ethel Hufford, Ruth and Donald MacGregor, Marie and Gladys Bredesen, Marion Dunsmore, Jennie McNiven, Nettie Johnston, Bernice Shaw, Catherine Hall, Clara and Minnie Nelson, Minnie Merx, Edythe Cochran, Nina Scales, Agnes Orr, Agnes Nelson, Beulah Beam, Opal Weimer, Caroline Lind, Helen Caswell and Lola Murphy; the Mesdames Gladys Wright, Catherine Boff, Bernice Grantham, Bernice Sahlin and Anna MacGregor; the Messrs. Merle Harrington, Lee Johnston, Ralph Finch, Clyde Thayer, Ivan Faber, Bertal Sundstrom, Harold Davis, O. Wiesner, Lyman Belamy, Earl Keliher, Dr. Lewis Keliher, Harold Grantham, Frank Wright, Louis Dunsmore, Frank Bugbee, Oscar Anderson, Marshall Shaw, William Paul Viking Larson, Theodore Bugbee, Cecil and Cyril Magone, J. Cole, W. Williams, Claude Poff, A. Jones and Norman Nelson. Thro' the evening punch and waters were served by the Misses Margaret and Helen MacGregor and Inez Bredesen, Patrons and patronesses for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shaw, Mrs. Bess Nesbit and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tower.

funeral oration, and Dr. H. F. Jones assisting in the services. The choir, composed of Mrs. Deemer, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Coates and Mrs. Merritt, rendered beautiful hymns. The pall bearers, with one exception, were former members of the old St. Johns city council, as follows: A. W. Davis, S. L. Dobie, J. E. Hiller, J. F. Hendricks, S. C. Norton and H. Henderson. The M. W. of A., of which the deceased was a member, held committal services at the grave in the Rose City cemetery.

St. Johns Community Club

The St. Johns Community Club assembled at the Y. W. C. A. building Tuesday evening and in spite of the inclement weather a goodly number were in attendance. Owing to an indisposition in the shape of a cold President Monahan deemed it advisable not to venture out and Prof. W. T. Fletcher presided in admirable style in his stead. Mrs. Borden acted as temporary secretary. Plans were outlined to some extent for the club's activities during the coming year, one feature of which will be an effort to secure the erection of a community club house. The idea of repeating the Community Club play, "The Deestrick Skule" was discussed and finally decided to abandon the idea or postpone it indefinitely. Instead, upon a voluntary offer of A. E. Jones to arrange for it, it was planned to secure the Peninsula Minstrels to put on an entertainment at time and place to be decided upon by the entertainment committee, due notice of which will be announced later. Lieut. Crane advanced the idea of a stirring campaign for new membership, and interestingly told of the vast and far reaching benefits to be derived from a strong community club. He said the club membership should total at least 1000. The lieutenant's suggestion met with instant approval, and when arrangements have been completed a campaign that is bound to bring results will be launched in an auspicious manner. As a matter of fact every good citizen should put their shoulder to the wheel and aid in the making of an organization by far the largest of its kind in the city. The pulling power and influence of such a club would be inestimable. A large organization ever commands respect, and any matters affecting the welfare of the community would receive instant attention from the powers that be. So with a club membership of one thousand strong anything in reason could readily be obtained.

Mrs. J. M. Shaw stated that the attendance of girls at the Y. W. C. A. numbered 3134 during the year, and she said it would certainly be fine if some arrangement could be made to provide an institution that would attract and entertain the boys as well, which a community house would no doubt do. Announcement of the features of the next club meeting will appear in the next issue of this paper.

Attendance at the Community Church services on Sunday were more encouraging than they were the week before. At the morning worship the Lord's Supper was observed and two new members were received into fellowship. At the Christian Endeavor meeting some very good suggestions were made for the betterment of the society. Tuesday night a social meeting of the C. C. class was held in the Y. W. C. A. building. This is a lively bunch of young people and at any time that they are together socially there is something doing. Next Sunday morning a report of the Community Church Conference, which is being held at the Y. M. C. A. this week will be given. Veda Carley will lead the Christian Endeavor. The topic will be "Utilizing Opportunities." The evening service will be planned especially with the young people in mind.—Reported.

Doric Lodge, Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, had an exceedingly prosperous year during 1921 and is entering upon another year with a set of officers in whom its members have the greatest confidence. One of the plans on its trestleboard not yet matured is the building of a new Masonic temple in St. Johns. It now owns two halls and a valuable business site in the business part of the city, just a little way west of the Peninsula National Bank. A bungalow Masonic temple, entirely devoted to Masonic meetings and purposes, is hoped for. The new officers are as follows: John M. Blair, worshipful master; Ross Walker, senior warden; C. B. Russell, junior warden; W. S. Ormandy, senior deacon; D. H. Knowles, junior deacon; E. P. Borden, senior steward; C. C. Currier, junior steward; F. P. Druker, treasurer; A. W. Davis, secretary; R. H. Knowles, marshal; D. M. Burson, tyler; R. Graden, chaplain.

Friday evening, December 30th, a surprise party and chivari was tendered Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mitchell, 624 Ivanhoe street, newlyweds, by fellow workers of the Portland Woolen Mills. A wedding present of a large library lamp was given the couple. Games were played and refreshments of cake, coffee and sandwiches were served and a good time for all is reported. Those present were: James Wendle, Alma Choquette, Mr. and Mrs. Cochran, Freda Roth, Martha Herzog, Mr. and Mrs. Schrank, Lillian Tuppi, Minnie Menech, Edyth Smith, Ludia Butler, Irene McQuier, Anna Maudsl, Florence Maxwell, Florence Minch, Bertha Leverage, Lucile Paine, Hattie Seachaw, R. H. Birnie, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mitchell, Master Frank Odell, Miss Edith Odell.
