Hold Annual Banquet

The evening of Tuesday, January tenth, found dull care and worries securely locked within the respective vaults of the Peninsula National Bank and the Peninsula Security Company and officers, directors and employees of both institutions gathered for the customary annual banquet. The Arcadian Gardens of the Multnomah Hotel, beautifully decorated with hangings of red and green, and the tables bearing exquisite examples of the florist's art worked out with poinsettias, carnations and ferns furnished an admirable place for the event. The hour of six thirty o'clock found all on hand and as the orchestra filled the gardens with tuneful melodies, the guests assembled at the banquet board, with Mr. F. C. Knapp, chairman of the board of directors of the Peninsula National Bank, presiding as toast master. Courses interspersed with speeches and music filled the hours to nine o'clock, at which time dancing became the source of entertainment for the balance of the evening. As a toast master, par-excellence is hardly sufficient to express the favor with which Mr. Knapp met from the banqueters. His goodly sense of humor furnished many an outbreak of merriment during the evening. Mr. J. N. Edleson, president of the Peninsula National Bank, Mrs. F. C. Knapp, Attorney J. O. Bailey, Mr. E. F. Doyle, vice-president of the Peninsula Security Company, Mr. C. H. Carter, director of the Peninsula National Bank and Peninsula Security Company, and S. L. Dobie, assistant cashier of the Peninsula National Bank, made very interesting talks during the evening. The hour of midnight furnished the signal for disbanding, and with many pleasant memories to remain in mind from the event all look forward to the next annual gathering. The following committee of arrangements, consisting of Mr. R. E. Hurd, Mr. E. J. Whelan, Miss Gladys Brodesen and Miss Grace Cole, were the recipients of many compliments for their efforts expended in making the affair artistically and socially successful.

Services at the Pioneer M. E. church: Sunday school 9:45. Classes for all ages. Dr. Elliott, vice-president of the Willamette University, will preach at 11 o'clock. In the evening at 7:30 Dr. Frank Sandifer will occupy the pulpit. The last Sunday evening of each month the pastor will give stereopticon pictures and sermon on "Seeing America First." The official board passed a resolution favoring that Community hall of the church be open on Tuesday night from 7 to 10 for young ladies and girls and Friday nights for young men. Sunday afternoon the church parlors will be open from 2:30 till 5:30 for reading the books being furnished by the Public Library.—Reported.

Mrs. Louisa Addison Buckles died at her home in this place January 7th. She was born in Montgomery county, Kentucky, May 22, 1852, and united in marriage with Samuel Buckles September 11, 1883, at Steppingstone, Kentucky. After residing 28 years in Kansas, where they have since resided. At the early age of thirteen years deceased united with the Christian church, and has lived an earnest, Christian life. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, four sons, Wm. S., Thomas, Robert and Albert, and one daughter, Mrs. Lucy Pressman of Burns, Ore. The funeral services were held at the Christian church Tuesday at 2 p. m., Dr. H. F. Jones preaching the sermon. Interment in Rose City cemetery.

I wish to announce that the real estate business of my father, the late S. C. Cook, will be continued in the same office and that I have taken charge of all outstanding accounts, contracts, rentals, etc. Associated with me in this business will be Alex. S. Seales, and under the name of Seales & Blew, we assure you that you will receive the same consideration, the same courteous treatment and the same square deal that my father ever had as his motto. We also wish to announce that at present we have a number of excellent buys in this district. Siblico furnaces also handled.—Mrs. E. A. Blew.

Don't forget this: Old Scotch Liniment is the best friend you have for pains in bones and muscles, rheumatism, etc. 35c, 75c, family size $1.50 bottle. For sale by the St. Johns Pharmacy.

Remember the dance at the Portland Woolen Mills club rooms this Friday evening. A good time assured.

RECORD FEES PAID LAWYERS

Skilful Leaders of the Bar Have Been Rewarded for Their Services With Small Fortunes.

Barrington Ward, K. O., who is to receive a fee of 10,000 guineas for undertaking the defense in Egypt of a wealthy Albanian charged with attempting to murder Lord Allenby, is by no means the only English lawyer whose forensic skill has been rewarded by a fee in five figures, usually abroad, remarks London Answers. Sir Roundell Palmer's services at the Geneva convention were rewarded by a fee of £15,000. Mr. Peterson, an English barrister, when practicing in Calcutta, had a retainer of 100,000 rupees and a daily retainer of 10,000 rupees for his defense of Totes Persand, an Indian contractor.

A fee of 10,000 guineas was offered to Sergeant Bullantyne to defend the gawkwar of Baroda on a charge of attempting to kill Mr. Phayre, the British resident, by mixing diamond dust with his food.

For negotiating a treaty of peace with Japan John W. Foster received a fee of £40,000 from the Chinese government, and Chauncey Depew, the American lawyer and wit, was rewarded by a fee of £40,000 for saving an estate from bankruptcy.

Some enormous fees have been paid to eminent counsel for defending wealthy prisoners.

Francis Wellman was paid £8,000 for his successful defense of the Hyams twins of Canada, who were charged with murder. Colonel James got a fee of £5,000 (the annual income of an English high court judge) for his defense of Inspector McLaughlin, who was accused of bribery some time ago. Two other American counsel, Austin Fox and Daniel Rollins, each received a £6,000 fee for prosecuting in certain police court trials.

Doctor Dolman was retained for the defense of Harry Thaw at a fee of £20,000, which, after all, was but half the sum paid ex-President Grevy for his services in the great Dreyfuss guano lawsuit.

DEMAND FOR FURTHER LIGHT

Connecticut Newspaper Wants to Know More About Buying Women's Shoes for $2 a Pair.

A Bridgeport (Conn.) paper tells its readers that a large manufacturing establishment in its city is aiding its employees by selling shoes and coal to the operatives at a reduced rate. Listen to this, for example:

Women's shoes, durable, stylish and cheap withal, are being distributed to workers who want them for $2 a pair. The significance of the $2 price is seen in a comparison with ordinary shoe price schedules. The shoes are sold off two days each week and several hundred pairs still remain.

As to the coal, it is sufficient to say that the corporation is furnishing three tons a week to its employees at $12.50 a ton, which does not strike us as such a marvel as the sale of shoes at $2 a pair, but as to this we should welcome further information, says the Hartford Courant. If it is possible to buy shoes at once durable and stylish at $2, the fact has gained precious little publicity in the last four years, even among women, and we should suppose that the women of Bridgeport would be apt to mention the fact to the dealers in the city. Surely there must be men employed by this corporation who would be glad to find it dealing in footwear for them, inasmuch as mere men will need shoes within a month or so at the best. Why not sell them durable and stylish shoes at, say, $4? We shall watch the further development of this plan with some interest.

Bank Elects Officers

The annual election of officers and directors of the Peninsula National Bank was held at its banking rooms on Tuesday, January tenth, 1922, at ten o'clock a. m. All officers from the previous year were re-elected with the addition of Mr. R. E. Hurd, who was elected as an assistant cashier. The election of directors followed in the regular course of business and the following officers and directors will serve in their various capacities for the ensuing year: Officers—Fred C. Knapp, chairman of the board; John N. Edleson, president; Charles B. Russell, cashier; Stanton L. Dobie, assistant cashier; Leo J. Wright, assistant cashier; Directors—Thos. Autzen, president Portland Manufacturing Co.; H. W. Bonham, president Bonham & Currier, Inc.; C. H. Carter, general superintendent Portland Woolen Mills; R. P. Drinker, president Peninsula Security Co.; J. N. Edleson, president; F. C. Knapp, president Peninsula Lumber Co.; M. G. Russi, secretary treasurer and general manager Rose City Flour Mills.

The George School Parent-Teachers' Association will hold their regular monthly meeting at the school on Tuesday at 2 p. m. A special musical program has been prepared and W. T. Fletcher, principal of the James John high school, will speak. As this is the first meeting of the new year, all members are especially urged to attend.

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness to us in our recent bereavement in the death of our dear wife and mother, who gave us their help, and for the beautiful floral offerings; to Dr. Jones and Mr. Johnson for their consoling words and beautiful services, and to all bearers who carried her dear form to its last earthly resting place. We wish to thank each one. They will ever be gratefully remembered by us—S. M. Buckles, Sons and Daughter.

EXTRA! People's Bargain Store EXTRA!

in the hands of Mr. Wm. Lewis

I am authorized to raise $5000.00 in TEN DAYS to satisfy creditors demands. It's a big task, but it must be done regardless of what the goods are worth. I am going to make a clean sweep of it and do it quick. I have a free hand to go ahead and make my own prices—in other words, to use my own judgment as to what the goods will bring. This is far beyond an ordinary sale. What a bargain feast I have prepared for you folks of St. Johns and vicinity cannot be realized until you enter this block long merchandising institution and meet these bargains face to face. I don't know where on this great green earth these prices can be beat that I am making on this entire stock. I have paid no attention to the former cost or selling price. My orders are final: Get the money. Sale begins Saturday, January 14th.

AT 59c

I have loaded up one of the big tables full of most every wanted kind of merchandise. It's one of the Big Surprise Bargains I have made up. Suffice to say the values run up to $5.00.
