A bouncing baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis E. Learned last Friday.

Who'll be the first dealer to advertise: "Get an automobile or an automobile will get you?"—Exchange.

Another good thing about living in a garage is that you can let the baby cut its teeth on a tire.—Dallas News.

A. W. Davis has moved into his new realty office on South Jersey street. It makes a neat and substantial office.

One reason why we think Santa Claus smokes a pipe is because he is such a rotten judge of cigars.—Dallas News.

Gassers' Express has moved into the room recently vacated by Mr. Coffey on Alta street, at the rear of the Grabateria store.

The kind of a man we hate to eat Christmas dinner with is one who is so near-sighted he gets gray on his spectacles.—Dallas News.

France is overlooking one item of the arms conference agenda. Its purpose is to reduce navies; not to increase them.—Eugene Register.

When the nations shorten their arms and the women lengthen their skirts, what will the paragraphs paragraph about?—Hinsdale, Michigan News.

D. O. Lear of Salem visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lear, on Edison street since last issue of this paper.

A casual view of those who attend church persuades us that the choir in heaven will be largely soprano.—Palatka, Florida, News.

It would be a good time to interest the city authorities in the use of a road scraper and a few yards of crushed rock on the streets of St. Johns.

Last week we printed Henry Bobell's name "Bobew." It is a poor editor who can't manage to get two items out of one.—Waldport Pacific Herald.

R. E. Hurd, who was added to the official force of the Peninsula National Bank as assistant cashier, was formerly connected with the Northwest Bank, and preceding his coming to the Peninsula National Bank was cashier of the Bank of Commerce. He is a pleasant, accommodating and congenial gentleman, and will be in charge of the Publicity and Service departments of the bank with an office in the lobby, giving easy access to the public at all times during banking hours.

The reduction in the police force throughout the city has certainly created an undesirable state of affairs, it is deplorable that such should be the case, and it is hoped that such condition will not remain so long. People pay for police protection, and are willing to pay for it. Either add more policemen or provide each with seven league boots.

The W. C. T. U. will meet January 16th, at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. George Atchison, 1620 Willamette boulevard. Mrs. Helen Davenport, state superintendent of Americanization work, will be present to give us some very interesting work on that line; also Mrs. L. L. Vincent, our county vice-president, will be with us. We will have special musical numbers by Mrs. Nourae, Mrs. Olson and Mrs. Callison. We hope no one will miss this splendid afternoon. Our program will be both entertaining and educational. We extend an invitation to others not members of our Union who are interested in Americanization work to meet with us.—Reported.
