DID YOU KNOW

That bulk goods are much cheaper than the fancy packages you ask for? Did you know that Cocoa is 10c per pound in bulk? You pay 25c for a half pound package put up in a fancy tin? You get as good coffee in bulk at 30c per pound as you pay 40c or 45c in an expensive tin. Tin cans cost the packer from 5c to 10c per tin, and you pay for them. What good are they to you?

A good Japan, English Breakfast or Gunpowder Tea we sell for 30c per pound. You pay from 60c to 80c a pound when you buy it in the advertised package. It is much cheaper to buy crackers and cookies by the pound.

Flour, sugar, eggs, butter and milk are really cheap. In fact you have very little to complain of in the grocery line. Compare today's prices with those of a year ago or two years ago, and you will find you have something to be thankful for. We have all of the above and many other things good to eat at the Petitions are being circulated for the hard surfacing of Ivanhoe and Syracuse streets, both from Philadelphia street to St. Johns avenue.

Mrs. J. M. Shaw underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital this week. Her numerous friends hope for an early and complete recovery.

Laurelwood Past Noble Grand Club will meet with Sister Susie Rogers, 304 East New York street, Friday evening, January 20th, at 7:30.

A mass meeting will be held at Jefferson High School Auditorium, January 22nd at 3 p. m. Bishop Sheppard will be the principal speaker. Everybody welcome.

Announcement has been made by the War Finance Corporation of a loan of $135,000. The loan is for agricultural and live stock purposes in Oregon.

Included in the proposed building program in Astoria during the coming season is a Knights of Pythias temple to cost between $35,000 and $40,000.

Correction—Sifton Parent-Teachers' Association will hold their meeting Friday evening January 20th, at 8 o'clock. There will be a program and refreshments as announced last week. All patrons of the school are urged to attend.

Ole Nelson, sheriff of Clatsop county, faces two indictments as the results of an investigation by the grand jury. One charges him with assault and battery on a young girl and the other with disorderly conduct.

A New York mother pleads for the protection of boys against girls. Now, with all respect to the girls, it does seem that reform is about to be started in the right direction.—Exchange.

The Ku Klux Klan is organizing in Eugene. A large number of knights have been sworn in and another class will be initiated some time this week, according to R. H. Sawyer of Portland, who is official representative of the imperial wizard.

The Community Club meeting scheduled for last Tuesday evening at the club rooms of the Portland Woolen Mills, was postponed on account of the condition of the weather and slippery streets leading to the club rooms. The date of meeting will be announced in next week's issue.

Plans for the construction of the Oregon avenue sewer system, to accommodate a district in St. Johns containing 2400 lots, have been completed. Action on these plans will be deferred for thirty days, to give the residents of the district an opportunity to remonstrate. The sewer will extend from Buchanan street to the Columbia river slough and is estimated to cost $75,000.—Abstract.

Invitations have not been issued to members of Masonic lodges and Eastern Star chapters for the next series of informal dances given by Minerva Social Club January 25th, February 24th, March 31st and April 28th. Members of either order are requested to present their receipts in lieu of an invitation or be vouchered for by some member present. Invitations have been issued to friends who are not Masons nor members of the Eastern Star.

With January 30th near at hand as the date for starting off the Community chest campaign residents of the Peninsula district should plan one and all on seeing that our usual enviable record for contributing to worthy movements of this variety is not broken. Through organization the St. Johns district is about completed, and the Review will publish in its next issue complete details concerning the activities, purpose and hoped for results of the Community chest fund.

Beavers that have been destroying fruit trees on several farms in the river bottom north of Eugene will be trapped, according to Ed S. Hawker, deputy game warden.

There is a class of people who want to run the government so that it will not clash with their own particular sins. If all could do that, there would be no government.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

The George School Parent-Teachers' Association met at the school on Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance. Mr. W. T. Fletcher, principal of the James John High School, gave interesting talk on "Why go to School and Why go to College?" Musical numbers were furnished by Violet Root and Novia Kester, and a fairy dance by Belva Woolley and Sadie St. Ours. The association favored the idea of maintaining a room where old clothing may be distributed to the needy ones, and also where different organizations who wish to cooperate with the association may meet and help make over old garments as the need may arise.

The Parent-Teacher Council has also signified their intention to cooperate along this line if a room can be secured.

Last Wednesday, January 11th, Neighbors Zella Killebrew and Kate Kreyer entertained the Oregon Grape Club at the home of the former, 520 Mohawk street. The day was spent in piecing blocks for another quilt. At 1 o'clock a pot luck dinner was served. Those present were: Neighbors Armstrong, Effa Beam, Bell, Brice, Bowley, Emma Beam, Clark, Corbett, Glowe, Fleming, Fletcher, Jacobson, McRea, Norris, Stuh, Tallman, Teeling, Walker, Weimer, and Mesdames Gage, Kreyer, Mills, Ida Dickson and little son; children, Helen Dunbar, Marcella and Carol Norris, Marie and Merriell Fleming, Vivian Muhm, Mary Jane and Harry Gage, Jr., Raymond Fletcher, Paul Clark and Ethel Trout.—Reported.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Pioneer Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Sterling on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Pettit, who has charge of the Japanese kindergarten of the First Methodist church of Portland presented two little Japanese children who sang. This part of the program was especially appreciated, as it showed what splendid work is being done along the line of Americanization by the Missionary Society. Mrs. Leonard read a paper on The Sunday school. Mrs. C. H. Palmer rendered three piano solos. Regret at the absence of the president, Mrs. S. C. Cook, was expressed and sympathy was extended to her in her late bereavement. Refreshments were served to the 25 ladies present. A cordial invitation is given to any one who wishes to join the society.

The regular monthly meeting of Gleaners' Sunday school class of the Pioneer Methodist Sunday school was held at the home of Mrs. Edith Vinson, 528 South Ivanhoe street, on Friday evening. Mrs. H. F. Clark, recently elected president, presided. Mrs. B. A. Olsen had charge of the devotionals and Mrs. R. D. Deemer led a song service. Mrs. L. E. Rose, treasurer, reported that the class had made a neat sum of money, beside giving joy to the sick and sorrowing in the way of plants and flowers. Before the next meeting each member of the class will earn a dollar in some unusual way and tell in poetry at the next meeting just how the money was earned. Mrs. J. C. Win was in charge of a guessing game for which Mrs. Arthur Mullin won the prize. Refreshments were served by the committee, Mesdames Merritt, Wis, McKeig and Olson. Thirty-five were present and each went home feeling it a good thing to belong to the Gleaners' class of the Pioneer Methodist Sunday school.—Reported.
