A. W. Markie Editor
Published Friday of Each Week
404 N. Jersey St. Phone Col. 321
Subscription price $1.50 per year.
This Review is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

The fellow who can crank a Ford car in winter 'and keep sweet, could lie down and let a pet snake crawl all over his naked body, says an exchange.

The man who used to have his hair cut by his mother now has a son who has his finger nails cut by a flapper while the barber is shampooing his hair and the porter is shining his shoes, says an exchange.

An editor was murdered in Arkansas and the murderer was sentenced to 99 years in prison, while a fellow that killed a lawyer got off with seven years. Prospective murderers please take notice.—Exchange.

Deborah Livingstone W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. G. W. Overstreet on Monday at 2 P. M. promptly. The first half hour will be devoted to Bible study conducted by Mrs. Williams, after which Mrs. Callison will have charge of the Mothers' meeting. Miss Caschere, superintendent of the kindergarten department of the Williams school will speak on training of children and conduct a round table discussion. Special music has been arranged.

A very elaborate party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Caldwell Saturday evening, Feb. 11th. A good time was enjoyed by all. Dancing and card playing were in order for the evening. Refreshments of punch and the usual good eats were served. The guests all departed, tired but happy, for their respective homes. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Miesner, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Holton, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miesner, Mrs. Eunice Jessup, Harvey Watterbury, Mrs. Mary Miesner, Louise Smith, Miss Maude Whorl, Mrs. Georgia Kelsey, Boyd Hubbell, Miss Beatrice Sather, Elden Halberg, James Fletcher, Mrs. May Goodspeed, Ferris Reed and Arthur Brackenback.

Mrs. C. J. Lanth, 1552 Newell street, proved herself a delightful hostess last Wednesday, Feb. 8th, when she entertained the Oregon Grape Club at an all day session. A very appetizing chicken dinner was served. After which our regular business meeting was held. Mrs. Margaret Wertheimer of Royal Circle gave a very interesting talk. Several vocal selections were given by Mrs. Marchand and Mrs. May assisted by other members of the club, with Mrs. Bowley at the piano. Naida May, Marcelle and Carol Norris each gave a little recitation. Those present were: Mesdames Armstrong, Effa Beam, Brice, Boyd, Bowley, Emma Beam, Corbett, Earl, Emerick, Fletcher, Fershweller, Jacobson, Mackey, Marchand, Maxwell, May, McGee, Norris, Stuhr, Teeling, Weiner, Wertheimer, Ethel Armstrong, Naida May, Marcelle and Carol Norris. We will meet March 8 with Mrs. B. S. Clark, 1029 S. Ivanhoe.—Reported.

An Investment in a Public Utility is an Investment in Necessary Public Service

Demand For Electric Energy Has Shown a Heavy Increase

There is no better index of the Growth and Prosperity of a Community than its demand for Electric Energy, that is, for Light and Power. The figures given below show the Substantial Increase in the Total Annual Output of Electric energy of this Company in the last eight years:

Year	Kilowatt Hour Production
1921	297,950,100
1914	184,765,949
Increase	113,184,151

This is an Increase of over 61 Per Cent.

A business supplying necessary service to nearly 40 Communities and over 330,000 People, 365 days in the year; and growing at the above rate, is a good one to invest in.

That is why we are inviting you to subscribe for a few shares of our 7 per cent Prior Preference Stock which is offered at 96 to yield you a 7.3 per cent return annually. Dividends payable every three months. You can buy for Cash or on easy payments.

No stock having preference over this issue will be created without the consent of the holders of a majority of this class of stock.
