

ORBON 2 IN 1 Combination Range

These NEW ORBON COMBINATION RANGES are really two ranges in one. The lower half is a Wood and Coal Range, with a four-hole top, and three gas burners on the right, and the upper half contains the gas oven and the broiler. The stove pipe is back of the splashback; the nickel is plain and the top is polished. These ranges are made in two styles. SEMI-ENAMELED oven door, panel, splashback and gas oven and broiler doors are white enameled.

Remember that we fill phone orders and deliver them free of charge. This means a great deal to the busy housewife who would otherwise be compelled to drop her work in the morning, dress up and hurry down to the store. Some stores try to get out of the expense of this service to you and ask you the same price for their goods.

Flour and Sugar remains the same for the present, and it looks as if they would go down next.

Vegetables are in poor supply on account of the miserable weather in the South. This makes the unusual demand for canned vegetables and fruit, and it keeps up week after week. Dried Fruit is moving fast, too, and the quality is fine this year.
