

ST. JOHNS REVIEW

June '22 class of James John High School will present the play "Just Plain Mary" April 28-29 at James John High School auditorium. The play promises to be of great interest. The cast follows: Miranda Hawkins, Bertha Lauth; Naomi Judkins, Eloise Gray; Electa Tarbox, Nellie Bode; Violet Webster, Greta Feetham; Austin George, Henry Bower; Lavina Hershey, Doris Smith; Daniel Judkins, Maynard Miksch; Hiram Paisley, Clifford Coon; Joel Sanborn, Theodore Piele; Ezekiel Judkins, Arnold Olson; Leila Hastings, Lilian Molson; Ethel Wyman, Alta McGregor; Martha Judkins, Marian Schlessler; Irene, Esther Osterholm; Ailee, Merle Chowning; Evelyn, Vesta Dibble; Ezekiah Judkins, Maxwell Macdonald; Ruth Judkins, Ruth Schaefer; Reverend John Andrews, Theodore Miller; Francine Du Mont, Rose McCauley.

The Royal Neighbor Club met at the home of Neighbor Reynolds, 909 S. Syracuse street, on Wednesday, April 19, at an all day session. The day was spent piecing a quilt. A delightful dinner was served at noon, which every one present enjoyed. Those present were: Mesdames Olson, Seaton, Redlinger, A. Berry, Zimmerman, Kryer, Bar, Stühr, Pig, Henderson, Jones, Wymore, Wright, Free, Reynolds. Visitors present: Mesdames Royce, Hilliker, Davis and Clark; children June Wymore and Orville Berry. The next meeting will be held with Neighbor Wright, 838 N. Jersey street May 17th.—Rep.

Plans are under way for Mothers' Day services to be observed at the Community church May 14th. At the Christian Endeavor Sunday evening one of the students from the University of Oregon Medical School who is preparing for medical missionary work will speak. The sermon thought for the evening service will be Practical Christianity. The Young People's Chorus will lead the song service and also sing a special number. The Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Ormandy on Willamette boulevard on Wednesday of next week.—Reported.

Again old times, when St. Johns was a separate municipality, are called to mind by the fact that the city council has just authorized and directed City Treasurer Adams to call in and pay off two lots of municipal improvement bonds issued by the former city of St. Johns. One of these lots is numbered from 622 to 631 inclusive, and the other is numbered from 632 to 633, and they are to be paid from the improvement bond sinking fund.—Oregonian.

An entertainment which promises to be one of the best ever staged in the St. Johns district will be given on Thursday evening, May 4th, at James John High School under the auspices of the Williams, Sitton and George school Parent Teacher Associations. Included on the program will be musical numbers by pupils from each of the different schools, and a feature which will be of interest to the entire community will be an illustrated lecture by T. J. Monahan on Pioneer Days in St. Johns. Mr. Monahan needs no introduction to the St. Johns community. He has been on the Peninsula for 40 years and from his knowledge of events as they have transpired in this community from the time he came here until the present with the aid of slides which have been made from pictures taken as the town grew, an interesting as well as instructive evening will be spent. If you miss this entertainment you are the loser. Admission 35c, children 20c. Proceeds will be used for sending delegates from each association to the National Parent Teacher Association which convenes at Tacoma May 8-13.

The tea party given by the Ladies' Aid of the Community church at the home of Mrs. J. O. Bailey last week Wednesday was well attended. About thirty were entertained through the afternoon. Simple but delicious refreshments were served and all had a very pleasant time. Next Wednesday afternoon, May 3rd, the Aid will meet with Mrs. W. S. Ormandy, 904 S. Willamette boulevard. We will have our business meeting at this time. All are urged to be present.—Rep.

Character dolls from different parts of the world are on exhibition at the St. Johns Branch Library April 25 to May 11th. Bring the children to see the furry Eskimo and her baby, the Scotch Highland lad, the Dutch boy, and the cunning Indian papoose, besides dolls from Russia, China and Norway. Although the dolls are the big feature of the exhibit there are other things from foreign lands, among them a beautiful Chinese boat, with an upper deck garden. Boys particularly will be interested in this.

Thousands of Chicago renters are thinking of beating landlords by camping in the "forest reserves" adjacent. Back there a huckleberry bush must be a tree and a sand dune a mountain. Eventually some of that army who are to camp out this summer to avoid high rentals will come to Oregon, build their own homes and pay rent to nobody.—Oregonian.

Laurelwood Past Noble Grand Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Alice Anderson on Yale street last Friday evening. Considerable business was transacted. The Rebekah quilt No. 1 was awarded to Mrs. Janet Tool. The following were present: Mesdames Chaney, Haskell, Beam, Simmons, Robison, Hautze, Pearl Beckman, Emma Anderson, Rogers, Canright, Hendricks, Burroughs, Norene, Amrein, Gaines, Leland, Agnes Beckman, Flux, Philippi, McKay, Clausen, Alice Anderson and sons and James Chaney. The next meeting will be an apron social at Odd Fellows' Hall on Friday evening, May 5th. A cordial invitation is extended to you.—Reported.

He, cautiously: "Would you say 'Yes' if I asked you to marry me?" She, still more cautiously: "Would you ask me to marry you if I said I would say 'Yes' if you asked me to marry you?" Good Belts 50c. ROGERS.

Apple growers and shippers and other fruit growers of the Northwest and the agricultural committee of the Chamber of Commerce appeared before the Public Dock Commission last week with strong arguments for the installation of cold storage facilities on Municipal Terminal No. 4. They argued that with cold storage facilities here they will be better able to ship their fruit and other perishable products to market without danger of damage. Representatives were present from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana. The dock commission took the matter under advisement.

"What do you want with me?" asked the indignant motorist when she was ordered to stop. "You were traveling at forty miles an hour? Why I haven't been out an hour!" said the woman. "Go ahead," said the officer, "that's a new one on me." Good Belts 50c. ROGERS.

A delightful birthday party was given by Miss Martha Herzog at her home, 223 Olympia street Wednesday evening, Apr. 19th, in honor of her cousin, Miss Hilda Nielke, and her father C. A. Wymore. Dancing and card games were the events for the evening. The refreshments consisted of ice cream and cake. Those present were: Miss Greta Pahl, Miss Mildred Poff, Miss Lydia Herzog, Miss Gertrude Simmons, Miss Valera Martin, Miss Hildegard Durand, Miss Minnie Minwick, Miss Carmela Henry, Russell Poff, Alvin Caldwell, William Meyers, Ted Weylan, James Wymore, Dwight Winnans, John Herzog, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wymore, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wymore, Mr. and Mrs. John Poff, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grantham, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Thierman. A good time was had by all.—Reported.
