"Gloria" Coffee

This is RAISIN WEEK all over the country, and every one should use as much of this delightful food. We have them in both the Del Monte and Sunmaid brands.

We just received some extra fine large Dried Prunes we can sell for 15c a pound—very cheap considering size and quality. These are Oregon grown and something the state can be proud of.

Dried Peaches and Apricots are fine and Dried Apples as well.

Sugar is down again and it looks like a poor investment to buy it by the sack this year.

Canned Fruits and Vegetables are still going at a great rate, but fresh ones will soon be getting better and cheaper.

Honey is very cheap this Spring, both comb and strained. We have it in several sizes, both light and dark.

Remember best grades of Bulk Cocoa is only 10c per pound and Bulk Ground Chocolate 20c per pound.

North Bend Post American Legion will soon erect a $20,000.00 modern home. The building as planned by the architects is estimated to cost $17,900 and the grounds have already cost $28,000. The Post will be incorporated and shares of stock will be issued to raise funds to put up the building.

The last meeting of Rose Temple No. 43, Pythian Sisters, was well attended and everybody enjoyed the stunt after Lodge, and also the supper. The next meeting will be held at Biekner Hall May 4th. So try and come for there is a good time awaiting you.—Reported.

The Friendship Club of St. Johns had lunch in the gold room of the Multnomah hotel on Wednesday and afterward went to the Orpheum Theatre. Those attending were Mesdames Harney, Shaw, Smith, Borden, Pullin, Evens, Seales, Couch, Schultze, Ormandy, Ingledue, McLean, Thompson and Douglass.

Passengers aboard the "Creole Special," a Southern Pacific train that left Los Angeles April 9th, had the delightful experience of sitting in the observation car of this limited train speeding across the country on its way to New Orleans and listening to a musical concert hundreds of miles away, by means of a radio outfit.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Lena Minighur at LaGrande, Oregon. She was formerly a resident of St. Johns. She will be remembered as a very capable nurse and her kindness to her patients will never be forgotten. One daughter, Mrs. James Latham, of Enterprise, is left to mourn her loss.

Probably half a thousand or more persons here are preparing for Currin's Sweet Pea Show in July by planting sweet peas. A considerable quantity of the seed has been given out at Currin's drug store to interested parties, and the Sweet Pea Show of 1922 promises to excel all others in profuseness and elegance.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Riley, his sister from California and uncle, Alfred Scott, composed a fishing party Sunday that captured the biggest salmon of the season. It weighed fifty pounds, and another one weighing 17 pounds was also captured by the party. The catch was made below the elevator site.
