

SPRING STYLES FOR MEN
 Vests will button up the front this season, say the Paris designers.
 Suits of tar and feathers in black and white effects will be worn mostly in Southern states.
 Napkins will be worn across the knees instead of around the neck. Thus the gravy will be allowed to drip on the necktie without hindrance.
 Spats will be much in evidence in married families.
 Tight fitting trousers will be much worn, especially around the bottoms.
 Vapor bath cabinets, when worn by men, will completely envelop them, showing only the head.
 Handcuffs this year will be of steel, brightly polished, and will be worn about the wrists.
 Socks will be much darned, although it is permissible to use stronger language when describing them.
 Ear muffs will continue to be worn in neighborhoods that are infested with gossips.
 Suspensives will be worn by men who have to use both hands in making a living. Those in one armed professions will stick to belts.
 Open wicker work flasks are coming in for the heated period, the heavy leather bound Winter flasks being put away in cedar chests.
 Porous plasters will not be changed much in style. They will be of the pek-a-boo effect, cut in the clinging style and gored around the edges.—Ex.
