"Gloria" Coffee

COFFEE will go up very likely, but we will hold our "Gloria" Coffee at the present price as long as we can. Some are paying 10 cents for the cans and don't seem able to get away from the habit. The "Gloria" at 35c; 3 for $1.00, is the best buy in Coffee on the market today.

WE HAVE in some of the Plantation Syrup from New Orleans. It is the Old Style all Cane Syrup—something pretty hard to get these days. We also have Dunbar's Pure Sugar House Molasses, something else that has been off the market for several years.

CANNED OYSTERS AND SHRIMPS are back to the old prices at last, but clams will still be high.

CANNED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES are still going into use in great quantities.

Dr. Edna Watt has just returned from Davenport, Iowa, where she has just taken her degrees of Doctor of Chiropractic. Dr. Watt will visit here for a couple of weeks at home of her mother, Mrs. E. D. Vinson, and after a visit to the Puget Sound will go to San Francisco, where she will open offices.

Norman Parks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parks, formerly a resident of St. Johns but now residing at Cloverdale, Oregon, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Good Samaritan hospital Saturday of last week. He is getting along very nicely.

Norman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. McQuarrie.

The Sifton Parent Teacher Association will hold its regular meeting Tuesday, May 25th, at 2:30 p. m. There are several matters of business to come before the members, also our delegate will report on the National Convention. This is our last meeting of the school year, so let us have a good attendance.—Sec.

Fire which wrought $6300 damage destroyed the Burlington hotel and also two dwellings adjacent early Saturday morning. Ten men living in the hotel escaped, although three had to jump from second story windows. S. C. Sloan bruised his hand when he landed. Dwelling houses on both sides of the hotel owned by Dan Brecht who also owned the hotel, were destroyed.

Oliver J. and Earl Vankuren, who have been at Port Angeles, Wash., for the past year, motored to St. Johns and were guests of their cousin, L. N. Bellinger. They had been spending the past year with their uncle at Port Angeles, and L. N. Bellinger who had been called there on account of the illness of the uncle and who passed away, accompanied them here. The two brothers are leaving this week for their home in Everett, Mich.

Mrs. E. F. Monahan, Mrs. Manley Smith and Mrs. E. A. Blew have returned from Tacoma where they attended the National Convention of Parent Teacher Associations as delegates from the Williams, Sifton and George schools. They wish to express their appreciation of the opportunity of attending this convention and to thank the associations from which they were sent. They are very enthusiastic over the work and have returned with new aspirations, a new inspiration and a determination to renew their energy in promoting the work in this district. Nearly three hundred delegates were in attendance from all over the United States with many interesting reports from the various states. In addition to the regular work of the convention Tacoma people furnished many wonderful entertainments during the week including sight seeing trips, banquets, luncheons and a stadium day entertainment in which 16,000 school children participated.

W. E. Knight, a well known citizen of St. Johns, died suddenly the morning of May 12th. He had just arrived at his work at the Portland Manufacturing Co. when he was stricken with heart failure and died instantly. He was born in Harrison county, W. Virginia, and was aged 70 years, 1 month and 21 days. He had been a resident of this place for a number of years, and was a good citizen. Mr. Knight is survived by his widow. The funeral services were held at his residence at 322 East Burlington street Sunday at 2 p. m. Interment in Columbia cemetery, the St. Johns Undertaking Co. in charge.

The members of the Debonair club gave a birthday luncheon Saturday at one o'clock in the tea room of the Multnomah Hotel in honor of Mrs. Alice Learned and Mrs. M. F. Sloan's birthdays. The table was beautifully decorated. The club presented each with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas. The Debonair club has been organized for 15 years, and Mrs. Learned has always been their faithful president. To Mrs. Learned they are one big family. At the close of the luncheon Mrs. Learned arose and looking down the long table, gave a few touching words of thanks for the way we had remembered her on her 74th birthday. Then Mrs. Sloan arose and thanked the club for remembering her, after which Mrs. S. Fones, vice president of the club, responded with a few appropriate remarks. Nineteen of the twenty-two members were present. The members are: Mrs. Alice Learned, Mrs. Otis Learned, Mrs. Frank Sandifur, Mrs. Myrtle Weeks, Mrs. A. W. Markle, Mrs. L. C. Kennedy, Mrs. L. Chambers, Mrs. Frank Horsman, Mrs. W. R. Evans, Mrs. Dr. W. E. Hartel of Piedmont, Mrs. J. E. Hiller, Mrs. Dr. Frederic Schultz, Mrs. J. N. Koeler of West Moreland, Mrs. C. H. Derrie, Mrs. S. J. Gray, Mrs. C. H. Boyd of Piedmont, Mrs. M. B. Green, Mrs. S. Fones, Mrs. M. F. Sloan, Mrs. H. A. Bicknase of Piedmont, Mrs. Wm. Caldwell and Mrs. C. A. Braasch. Mrs. Fanny Southernland, a sister of Mrs. Learned, was an invited guest.—Rep.

Moose hall presented a gay scene on Tuesday evening when Minerva social club staged its country fair. Everything from hot dogs to the roulette wheel was in evidence to attract the daintily ginghamed lassies and the scrubbed up lads who came from all parts of the peninsula to join in the festivities. The sudden appearance of a cop brought to a halt the rush of business at the wheel operated by J. M. Blair and Ross Walker who were placed under arrest for operating an illegal game of chance. Mr. Blair, as general of the affair, was taken to the police station where Judge Hawkins staged a trial and promised to release Mr. Blair on bail, which he endeavored to produce. It was not until Mr. Blair had extracted the necessary bail from friends who had followed to the police station that Judge Hawkins relented and the game was allowed to proceed. Mrs. G. A. Roberts and Miss Alda Overstreet were general chairmen of the affair. In charge of the candy booth were Mrs. R. Ingledue, Misses Gladys Bredeson, Donald McGregor and Beulah Zimmerman. Mrs. H. A. Simmons, Miss Nettie Johnson and Mrs. Chauncey served punch. Mrs. D. M. Burson, Mrs. W. A. Carroll, Mrs. J. S. Downey and Mrs. E. Thurston had charge of the home cooking booth. Mrs. J. Kenney and Mrs. B. R. Barheim had the grab bag, and G. A. Roberts, Mr. Kewell, Marion Johnston doled out the hot dogs. Mrs. Nettie Mason, Mrs. W. Ball and Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson were in charge of the fancy work booth, and last, but not least, Miss Florence Davis and Mrs. W. R. Morrow revealed the past, present and future according to the mystic art of palm reading. The auto robe was donated by Ross Walker, the blanket by J. M. Blair, a savings bank and five dollar account by J. N. Edlerson, suit pattern by J. Noce, potted plant by Ralph the florist, two hand embroidered rompers by Bonham & Currier, buffet set by Miss Gladys Bredeson, all of which were raffled.—Rep.
