St. Johns Community Club

The St. Johns Community Club partook of a delicious dinner at the High School building Wednesday evening, which was prepared by the Domestic Science department. Afterward the club members and friends were entertained in a delightful manner by the school orchestra, glee club, addresses and an act of the play, "The Glass Slipper," which will be presented by the glee clubs on this, Friday, evening. A rising vote on endorsing the daylight saving movement was strongly against such movement. The candidacy of Miss Louise Jennings for the Bryn Mawr scholarship was endorsed and an entertainment to assist in raising funds for expenses incident to such scholarship was planned, and will be given by the Portland Woolen Mills at their club house, under the auspices of the Community Club on Tuesday evening, June 6th. Miss Jennings made a very pleasing address in relation to the scholarship. Upon request of Mr. Curran the Community Club will sponsor the Sweet Pea Show this year, and it will be held in the Y. W. C. A. building the early part of July. Mrs. L. P. Hopkins was made chairman of the exhibit. Prof. Fletcher, Ellsworth Rakes and school directors Newell Shull and Thomas gave interesting and instructive talks on matters relating to the schools. The many interesting school exhibits were viewed and occasioned much admiring comment. President Monahan urged that all good citizens join the club and aid in the betterment of conditions in this section. The directors attending expressed appreciation of the club and the good work it is doing.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church held their annual election of officers at the home of Mrs. W. J. Galloway Friday afternoon, May 12th, and the following were elected: President Mrs. S. E. Cook; vice president, Mrs. B. A. Olsen; second vice president, Mrs. F. Rose; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. S. Merritt; recording secretary, Mrs. T. Skells; treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Churehill. Department Secretaries—Evangelism, Mrs. W. E. Kloster; Christian Stewardship, Mrs. W. J. Galloway; Music Director, Mrs. F. N. Sandifur; Temperance, Mrs. J. Kerr; Mrs. A. Foul; Perpetual Membership, Mrs. E. D. Katinger; Mrs. J. Sterling; Mite Box, Mrs. C. Mason; Mrs. F. Rose; Supply, Mrs. F. J. Fox; Mrs. R. D. Ream; Young People's Work, Mrs. F. D. Hendershot; Mrs. W. E. Kloster; Children's Work, Mrs. H. P. Short; Mrs. E. Bow; Portland Settlement Center, Mrs. F. N. Sandifur; Old People's Home, Mrs. J. Kerr. Committees—Membership, Mrs. Myrtle Weeks; Mrs. H. P. Clark; Mrs. F. Woolley. Property—Mrs. B. A. Olsen; Mrs. W. J. Galloway; Mrs. J. C. Churehill. Publicity—Mrs. E. D. Vinson.

The Oregon Grape Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Ruth McCrea, 816 Oswego street, at an all day session Wednesday, May 10. Tackling a comfort and cutting blocks for a quilt was the work accomplished. A pot luck luncheon was served, after which the regular business meeting was held. Those present were Mesdames Bell, Bowley, Beam, Emerick, Fletcher, Fershweller, Glawe, Jacobson, Keyser, Zella Killebrew, Norris, Stuhr, Trout, Teeling and Weimer. Guests were Mrs. Crumley and little daughter Anna Pearl, Mrs. Fennel and little daughter Marion, Mrs. Mary Donaldson and Baby Ardine of Klein, Montana, Mrs. Rose Killebrew, Marcella and Carol Norris and Marie Trout. The club will meet with Mrs. Lillian Miller, 720 S. Edison street, June 14th.—Reported.

In emergencies you run to your local drug store for a quick prescription. Or, to finish a dress before going on a trip, you find you need just a wee bit more cloth and run to the dry goods store to purchase it. Or, in numerous other ways you find your local stores convenient and ready to supply an urgent need. But if you patronize these stores only when you need something in a hurry—if you habitually send money away to out of town concerns—the local stores cannot continue to exist. They must have your support at all times if you want them here in time of urgent need. There are many ways in which local stores can serve you and save you money. Give them a chance. Your patronage is what they need.

Friday evening, May 19th, Miss Georgia Rich was to have presented Yvonne Smith and Marion Milne in piano recital in the Woodlawn M. E. church, but owing to the sudden illness of Marion, Beth Boomsliuter substituted, playing two groups of six pieces which added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. The six junior pupils—Marie Henle, Barbara Harris, Helen Degidio, Edith Neff, Dorothy Berry and Vivian Milbow—played their pieces perfectly and expressively. Little Yvonne Smith played her two groups of eleven pieces with ease, musical feeling and characteristic interpretation.

Miss Rich presented the intermediate and advanced students on Monday evening, May 22, in the Woodlawn M. E. church, ably assisted by Elmer Sneed, whose violin solos were greatly enjoyed. These students played their numbers with rhythmical feeling, musical interpretation and tonal shadings—Beth Boomsliuter, Helen Neff, Dorothy Maetoch, Ruth Wilkins, Verna Shields, Alta McGregor, Ruth Palmer, Eliza Vinson, Elizabeth Ozden, Madeline Munson, Ethel Knopf, and Frieda Bratzel. Sixty guests came up on a special street car from St. Johns to attend the recital.—Reported.

As a fitting culmination of a successful year, the St. Johns Study Club held a co-operation luncheon in the Y. W. C. A. building on Wednesday at 1 o'clock, with the following members in attendance: Mrs. R. G. Brand, president; Mrs. E. S. Harrington, sec.-treas.; Mrs. E. P. Manning, Mrs. Nora E. Meyers, Mrs. J. M. Shaw, Mrs. E. S. Currier, Mrs. A. E. Jones, Mrs. T. H. Skells, Mrs. G. E. Schlosser, Mrs. P. A. Getz, F. D. Hendershot, Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. J. O. Bailey, Mrs. Fred Means, Mrs. E. A. Blew, Miss Florence Gould and Miss Covington. Election of officers resulted in the re-election of Mrs. Brand as president; Mrs. Harrington secretary; Mrs. A. E. Jones vice president; Mrs. J. O. Bailey treasurer; Mrs. E. A. Blew publicity secretary. Following the luncheon Miss Florence Gould read a paper on "Animal and Plant Life in Oregon."

R. Bruce Horsfall gave a very interesting and instructive lecture on birds of Oregon which he illustrated with thirty beautiful oil paintings of his own creation. The Study Club will resume activities again in September when the subject of Authors and Artists of the Northwest will be taken up. New members will be welcomed into the club and any woman who can afford to give one afternoon of every second week cannot afford to miss the educational and the social features of this club.—Reported.

Under the direction of Mrs. G. W. Overstreet, president of the Deborah Livingston W. C. T. U., that organization is gaining rapidly in the contest now being conducted through the Greater Portland Association. Since the Union entered the contest late it is remarkable that it now stands fifth place and only a few votes from fourth place. In order that noticeable gain may be made this organization must have at least 15,000 votes each week. For the purpose of stimulating interest in the contest in this community, Mrs. Overstreet has appointed the following captains who will check up on her particular district once each week and see that the votes are turned in: Mrs. Knox, Mrs. Meyers, Mrs. Merchant and Mrs. Blew. Votes will be furnished with each cash purchase made from Curran's for Drugs, H. J. Simmons, Grabateria Store, C. J. Mueck Grocery, St. Johns Hardware, W. M. Fowler, jeweler. Save your votes.

Portland, Ore., May 20, 1922—Editor St. Johns Review—Dear Sir: I understand that you have a fireman in St. Johns by the name of Fred Orchard who claims to be some wrestler. Now I wish to issue a challenge to Orchard and I will agree to throw him twice within 30 minutes of actual wrestling time. I am willing to wrestle him any time, any place and winner to take all. I would like to have you put this challenge in your paper. Hoping you find space for same and thanking you in advance for favor, I remain, respectfully, Phil Turner, Welterweight Champion of Canada.

Charles Atkins, a negro 15 years old, one of four taken into custody in connection with the killing of Mrs. Elizabeth Kitchens, 20 years old, was burned at the stake at Davisboro, Georgia, May 18th. The lynching occurred at the scene of the murder and followed an alleged confession from the prisoner. He was tortured over a slow fire for 15 minutes and then, shrieking with pain, was questioned concerning his accomplices. Members of the mob, comprising nearly 2,000 people, then raised the body again, fastened it to a pine tree with trace chains and relighted the fire. More than 200 shots were fired into the charred body following the boy's death.

Will be at
BENSON HOTEL
TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY,
June 6th and 7th.
Office Hours: 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

TWO DAYS ONLY
No Charge for Consultation
Dr. Mellenthin is a regular graduate in medicine and surgery and is licensed by the state of Oregon. He visits professionally the more important towns and cities and offers to all who call on this trip free consultation except the expense of treatment when desired.

According to his method of treatment he does not operate for chronic appendicitis, gall stones, ulcers of the stomach, tonsils or adenoids.

He has to his credit wonderful results in diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, blood, skin, nerves, heart, kidney, bladder, bed wetting, catarrh, weak lungs, rheumatism, sciatica, leg ulcers and rectal ailments.

If you have been ailing for any length of time and do not get any better, do not fail to call, as improper measures rather than disease are very often the cause of your long standing trouble.

Remember above date, that consultation on this trip will be free and that his treatment is different.

Married women must be accompanied by their husbands.
