EGGS are still reasonable, but Butter is still going up. Nucoa is fine to use in place of Butter and will help to curb the demands of the butter men.

GREEN VEGETABLES are in fine supply now and a little cheaper. Berries are getting cheaper and will soon be in from close by and cheap enough for all.

THIS REMINDS us that the Canning Season is fast approaching, and this year you should put up a plenty. Our Fruit Jars are all in now and you will find them cheaper than for several years. They are better made, too, and will be found satisfactory. The BALL MASON is the only jar we had no trouble with.
