

Celebrates 87th Birthday

Mrs. R. S. Zierden quietly observed her 87th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Rebecca S. Zierden (Mrs. Nicholas Zierden) of 119 East Scriber avenue, Williamsport, Pa., was born in 1835 in St. George, New Brunswick, Canada, and was the youngest of seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spafford. In 1638 her paternal forefathers, John and Mary Spafford, emigrated from Yorkshire, England, and settled in Rowley, Essex county, Massachusetts. The descendants of these were some of the valiant "Green Mountain Boys" of Revolutionary fame. Mrs. Zierden is one of the seventh generation of this John and Mary Spafford. Her maternal forefathers were of the line of English Stewarts, also of the Prince of the House of Orange (each family giving Orange as a name to their eldest son). These forefolds settled in the colonies (Connecticut). At the outbreak of the Revolutionary War they were too loyal to take up arms against the king, so leaving lands and cattle, migrated to St. George, New Brunswick, to the king's domain, where Mrs. Zierden was born. She has one daughter, Mrs. Fred Drynan living in Portland, Oregon, also two nieces, Mrs. Harold Hookham, 525 E. Mohawk street, and Mrs. Horatio G. Freeman, at 708 Hudson street. Mrs. Zierden spent the day quietly receiving the hearty congratulations of a large number of friends and relatives. Mrs. Zierden has visited St. Johns a number of times and has a number of friends and relatives living here.—Reported.

From the shores of broad Columbia,
(Father waters of the West)
To the Siskiyou's snowy summits
Where the mountain eagles nest;
From Pacific's booming surf breaks,
To the winding of the Snake
There's a land whose tranquil splendor
Bursts on mountain, plain and lake.
It's a land of peace and promise,
Fairy land of golden dream;
Where the purple twilights linger
And the Western sunsets gleam
Potent land, whose power and beauty
Hand in hand sweep on and on;
Magic land your truth enhances,
Oregon my Oregon.

While the bridegroom will not be much of a factor in the June weddings, it will be a mistake to try to have one without him.
