"Gloria" Coffee

The Canning Season is Close now for Strawberries, they are at their best now and while they may be cheaper next week, if we have no rain the berries will be very poor. It looks like a very short season. Sugar is going up a little every day or so.

We have in a new supply of Eastern Summer Candies, you will find them good and very reasonable in price. We also have a big supply of Gum Drops, Broken Stick and Plain Mix at 15c per pound, all first class candy.

More Home Grown Fresh Vegetables are Coming in now and the people certainly like them.

Another lot of Del Monte Pork and Beans in and they are fine. They use No. 1 California Small White Bean while the Eastern Packers use the Michigan Pea Bean, the California Bean is Superior.

Christian Science: Sunday morning services at 11:00; Wednesday evening at 8:00 at 403 Smith avenue.

The Peninsula Washery is now doing wet wash. If you have anything in that line this local institution would appreciate your patronage.

Kathryn Dyke, a Jefferson high school student, was drowned in the Columbia Slough near Fairview Sunday, being sucked down by the quicksands.

Sealed bids will be received by the county commissioners until 10 A. M. Monday, June 19, for paving St. Johns River Road from Stanton street to Willamette boulevard.

In the Willamette Valley Base Ball League the Portland Woolen Mills defeated the Green-Walton Club 6 to 3 at West Linfield Sunday. Larson and Golden was the battery for the locals.

If you have out of town visitors at your home, or a birth, wedding, party, death, or going on a visit, send an account of the same to the Review for publication. The columns are open for news items up to Wednesday evenings, and we are glad to get them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin and daughter Gertrude and Mrs. F. N. Waxmuth were among the many Portland people attending the graduating exercises at Oregon Agriculture College Monday. They motored to Corvallis in the early morning and report a delightful trip.

Making good their promise to the Community Club, the County Commissioners have had their road building forces busy in improving Oswego and Richmond streets the past week. This has been a long needed improvement and our citizens are glad to see the work being done.

Remember the Bachelor Club would appreciate any roses you can spare for use in constructing their float. Call Columbia 578 evenings as soon as possible that your name may be listed, if you have roses to spare. An automobile will call for the roses the day before the parade.

The smoker to be given for the benefit of the Portland Woolen Mills base ball club in the club house of the Portland Woolen Mills Friday evening, June 9th, promises to be highly entertaining. "Fighting" Blotch and "Speed" Murphy will put on the main boxing event. The former is a coming heavyweight of Portland, and the latter has defeated a number of good men. Both are overseas boys.

Robert Baker, 84, of Harlan, Ky., on Sunday became the father of his thirty-third child. Mrs. Baker, the mother, is just past her 35th year, and she, too, is rejoicing, for though her married life is fourteen years in length, this was her eighth child. When she and Baker married she was 21 and he was 70. She is Baker's seventh wife, his sixth having died many years ago while they were on a ranch Baker owned near Seattle, where he married the seventh.

The need for more school buildings in Portland is undoubted. The school directors are presenting for approval a bond issue of $3,000,000 for building purposes. While the bond issue comes at a time when people are heavily burdened, the schools must be provided, and there seems to be no other way than to issue more bonds. There ought to be no question in the mind of every qualified voter as to his duty concerning the bond issue.

A man tried to tell a deaf woman her house was on fire. He rushed up the front steps, hammered on the door, and when the woman came, shouted "Your house is on fire!" "What did you say?" she asked. The man jumped up and down, pointed to the roof and shouted, "House on fire! Get out quick!" The woman not having heard a word smiled politely and said, "Is that all?" "Well," replied the man, dejectedly, "that's all I can think of just now."

The Sweet Pea Show under the auspices of the Community Club promises to be an important and interesting event. It will be held in the Y. W. C. A. building the middle of next month. Any one having suggestions to make or desiring information should see a member of the Sweet Pea committee, and is as follows: Mrs. L. P. Hoskins, 202 E. Burr street, Col. 68; Mrs. Wm Surber, 539 S. Jersey, Col. 1091; Mrs. E. F. Monahan, 905 S. Ivanhoe, Col. 224. A number of prizes will be given.

TRY THE DRUG STORE FIRST. "Currin Says So."

Get an Eversharp at Currin's. The Methodist choir gave a fine musical entertainment Wednesday evening.

Fred Brown has begun construction of a two story residence at 213 Charleston street.

Cool Work Shoes for Summer time $2.75—ROGERS.

The Masonic Order will lay the corner stone of the new Roosevelt high school some time after June 13th.

Send the Sweet Girl Graduate a Box of Candy. "Currin Says So."

Mrs. Katherine Johnson of 514 N. Edison street is visiting her sister at Ashland, Oregon, for four or five weeks.

Mrs. Elsie Smith will return from the Cottage Maternity hospital today, Thursday, with her two week old baby girl.

The vaudeville entertainment at the club rooms of the Woolen Mills Tuesday evening was well attended and greatly enjoyed.

The Christian church will observe Children's Day next Sunday evening with appropriate exercises. You will be welcome.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Evangelical church gave a dinner and supper Wednesday. The Society will adjourn for the summer.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will serve dinner at noon hour on next Wednesday. Homemade strawberry shortcake will be a feature.

"Wilson Baseball Equipment." "Currin Says So."

Bring all your eyesight troubles to Dr. Frank Sandifur and get real relief. He specializes on the care of eyes. Bonham & Currier building, phone Col. 379.

"TWO BIG STORES"—Klamath Falls and Portland. "Currin Says So."

The next meeting of the Community Club will be held Tuesday evening, June 20th. It will probably be the last meeting during the summer months.

Children's Day services will be held at the Evangelical church on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. A special program will be rendered. Appropriate services will be held. All invited.

An interesting program entitled "The Last Day of School at Pumpkin Center" will be given by Rose Temple, Pythian Sisters, at Bickner Hall June 15th. Admission, adults, 25c; children 10c.

Complete Line of Fishing Tackle—Everything but the Fish. "Currin Says So."

Mr. William E. Ertel and Mrs. May Elizabeth Kelley were united in marriage at the home of the bride, 215 Oswego street, on Wednesday at 2 P. M. by Dr. H. F. Jones. Only the members of family and immediate friends attended.

St. Johns Camp No. 773, W. O. W., will hold its regular semi-annual election of officers in Bickner Hall next Monday evening, June 12th. All members are requested to be present and help elect some live wires for the ensuing term.—Reported.

The sweetness of Low Prices never equals the bitterness of Poor Quality. "Currin Says So."

The Pioneers of Saint Johns will have their annual meeting at the residence of Mrs. Rose Hartman Benjamin the second Tuesday of June, the 14th ult. Let each member answer at roll call. No other notice will be given in the Review.—A. J. Hanson, Sec.

Edward F. Severance, a resident of this city for the past half century, died at his home in St. Johns Tuesday morning, aged 72 years. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Wood. The funeral services were held at Holman's undertaking parlors on Thursday afternoon, Dr. H. F. Jones preaching the sermon.

Mr. John T. Stivers, Evangelist for the St. Johns Christian church, is on the field doing preparatory work for the campaign to begin June 18. Mr. Stivers is a man of pleasing personality, an eloquent speaker, a man who knows the teachings of the Bible. It will pay you to hear him. The special campaign will run from June 18th to June 30th.

At a farewell party given Mrs. Emma Beam twenty Oregon Grape Woodworkers stepped in to surprise Neighbor Beam. Mrs. Beam had expected the "Past Guardian Neighbors' Club" to meet with her but the extra members gave her quite a pleasant surprise. Oregon Grape Circle has postponed their next meeting until July 5 so as not to conflict with Rose Carnival week.—Rep.
