DO YOU KNOW?

That 10,000 children in Portland schools are poorly housed (in portables, basements and dilapidated buildings)?
That the school population is up, and the assessed valuation is down?
That of the decrease of $1,509,533.81 in the tax levies of the county, two-thirds is cut off the Public Schools, and one-third off the other 72 tax supported institutions?
That 10 courses essential in modern education have been discontinued?
That other activities will have to be discontinued unless you vote additional income?
That you can help to remedy these conditions by voting for the Bond Issue and Tax Levy on June 17? Not one, but both.
That the Bonds will cost you practically 86 cents on $1,000 of assessed valuation?
Approved by the Parent Teachers' Association.
Mrs. W. D. Fairchild left June 5th on a two months' visit in North Dakota, Minnesota and Wyoming.

An Interesting Program

The program under the auspices of the Sifton Parent Teacher Association at the Sifton school on Friday evening was well attended and greatly appreciated. The musical numbers consisted of Hawaiian melodies sung and played by Emma and Louisa Koshanek; a piano duet by the Misses Woolley; and a violin solo by Mr. Oliver with Randolph Howard at the piano. Nicolle Toole and Tabea Frieberg recited "In Flanders Fields" and "America's Answer," and Mr. McMahon gave us one of his inimitable readings. We were most fortunate in our speakers who in turn were Mr. Fletcher, Mr. Zimmermann and Mrs. J. F. Hill, State President of the P.T.A. Each in his way presented the bond issue, and surely, after listening to these able speakers, no

Married at Eugene

The marriage of Eugene Reynolds of Eugene, Ore., to Miss Ruth Cook of Dexter, Ore., was solemnized at the First Christian church in Eugene June 4th at 7 a. m. Immediately following the ceremony and a wedding breakfast given at the groom's mother's, they motored to Portland, accompanied by their mothers, Mrs. H. G. Reynolds and Mrs. F. H. Cook, to visit at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Foss, 509 E. Mohawk street. A pretty wedding dinner was served at the home of the latter Monday evening, June 5th, in their honor. A few relatives and friends were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Newell and sons, George and Charles; Mrs. Chas. Foss and daughter Alice, Edw. Foss, L. E. Reynolds and sons, Master Arthur and Howard; Mrs. F. H. Cook, Mrs. H. G. Reynolds, Eugene Reynolds and bride. The week was spent in sight seeing, going up the Columbia River Highway and visiting other places of interest in and around Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. F. H. Cook returned to Eugene Friday, while Mrs. H. G. Reynolds will remain to visit her daughter for a few weeks.

Remember the Bachelor Club would appreciate any roses you can spare for use in constructing their float. Call Columbia 574 evenings as soon as possible that your name may be listed, if you have roses to spare. An automobile will call for the roses the day before the parade.
