Strawberries are still on the market, but if you intend putting any up—Get Them Now.

Fruit Jars are going up in price—have gone, in fact, and you had better get yours while we are selling at the present low figures. You will need a great many this summer. It would pay you to buy your Jelly Classes now, also.

Garden Stuff begins to show the power of the summer Sun and Green Peas and things of that kind are very disappointing.

Remember we have a fine variety of Summer Drinks, Candles and Lunch Meats for the Picnic.

New Crop Brazil Nuts are in now and they are larger and better than usual, try them and you understand why they are often called "Cream Nuts."

H. C. Benedix of Sacramento, Cal., has been spending a few days here, looking after property interests.

Mrs. Nels Johnson had as her guest during Rose Festival week her sister, Mrs. Henry Film of La Grande, Oregon.

Mrs. Roy Worden and children left Sunday morning to join her husband at Raymond, Wash., where they expect to make their future home.

Christian Science: Sunday morning services at 11:00; Wednesday evening at 8:00 at 403 Smith avenue.

Weeks & Wright are having a substantial addition erected to take care of increasing business on Leavitt street.

Miss Alda Overstreet of the Williams school is attending summer school at Monmouth. She will be away about seven weeks.

The American Institute of Banking will convene in Portland July 17-20. Fully 1000 delegates will be here and during their stay will visit the leading industries.

W. D. Morgan, of 116 S. Jersey street who was operated upon at the Peninsula Hospital last week for kidney trouble, is getting along nicely.

A. C. Galbraith has taken out permits for five more new dwellings on Central avenue in the 1100 block, and also three more on Swenson street.

The Little Misses Edith, Emma, Jessie and Edna Riggs were prominent little flower and rosebud girls at the University Park Community Hoorah Wednesday evening.

The Community Hoorah held on the Portsmouth school ground Wednesday evening was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed. A fine program was rendered.

Fire destroyed the building of P. A. Bredeen on North Jersey on last Friday. It was occupied by Mrs. Barlow as a store. The building and goods were destroyed by the fire.

The new Grabateria store building, excavation for which was begun last week, will be a fine addition to South Jersey street. It will be two stories and constructed of concrete and brick.

The Pioneer M. E. Sunday school will have their annual picnic July 4th, but it will be necessary to make reservations for transportation no later than Sunday morning at the Sunday school hour.—Reported.

Miss Opal Weimer is at present teaching gymnasium and art at the girls' summer camp at Nacottes, Wash. It is known as Willapa Camp and is a beautiful resort, and Miss Weimer is having one fine time. We know her ability and feel that she will succeed wherever she may go.

Miss Minnie Plasket is spending a month in California, visiting relatives in Rio Linda, and at present with friends in Santa Cruz. Miss Minnie is somewhat of a swimmer and will no doubt avail herself of the opportunity of the warm Southern coast bathing. She reports fine weather and lots to see.

Portland again is engaged in the shipbuilding industry after a lapse of nearly a year or since the Northwest Bridge & Iron Works closed its plant. C. F. Matthews, who recently acquired the Peninsula Shipbuilding plant, has laid the keel for large wooden schooner for the F. F. Freeman Steamship Co., and has a force of more than 30 men employed. The force will be increased as the construction of the craft progresses. The vessel will be built especially as a lumber carrier.—Abstract.

Mrs. J. F. Gillmore has returned from Texas, where she was called in connection with settling her mother's estate. Her mother died suddenly March 31 of heart trouble at the age of 72. Her father, West Edwards, an old time cattleman, died 16 years ago. There were six children, two girls and four boys, the youngest boy dying during the war. The other three still continue the cattle business established by their father. Mrs. Gillmore reports plenty of rain and everything in good shape, and the oil business beginning to boom again.

Here is a Bargain: A dandy home for only $2600, $300 down, if sold at once, balance $20 per month and interest. Inquire at this office.

Mrs. P. W. Patterson and her daughter of Gibson county, Tennessee, are visiting at the home of their sister and aunt, Mrs. M. J. Gray, and family, 721 N. Syracuse street.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved mother and grandmother, and also for the beautiful floral tributes.—Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Swan and Family.

Today, Friday, the St. Johns Chautauqua opens at the Williams school grounds. The program is an exceptionally good one, and all who can should attend. On account of elimination of the war tax the season tickets are less in price than last year. Buy a season ticket now.

J. L. Dillon, Jud. Akirell and Mr. Lamb of Appleton, Wash., spent Monday evening of last week at the home of Mr. Dillon's daughter, Mrs. G. H. Sperling at 530 E. Tioga street. They left the following day for Southern Oregon, where they expect to look after some business interests and then return to the home of Mrs. Sperling.

The Oregon College of Ocular Sciences, of which Dr. Frank Sandifur is one of the instructors, has closed for the Summer. At a business meeting held on Monday evening at the home of Lena Crump the following officers were chosen by the members of the I. G. H. Y. Club: President, Rose McCauley; vice president, Sara Abbott; secretary, Eleanor Doughty; reporter, Vesta Hughes. The remainder of the evening was devoted to 500. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.—Reported.

Mrs. May Kerr entertained the Altruistic Club of Pythian Sisters at her home on Charleston street Tuesday, June 20, with 14 members present. Piecing of a quilt was the work of the day. Dinner was served at noon, after which the business meeting was held. It was decided to postpone the next meeting which falls on July 4th until July 11, when the club meets with Mrs. Effie Maxfield. Those present were Messdames Johnson, Hendricks, Treber, Clark, Jones, Beckman, Gramaechy, Maxfield and Swift. The guest was Mrs. Film.—Rep.

A delightful birthday party was given by Mrs. Ross Walker at her home, 420 Oswego street, on Wednesday afternoon, June 28th, in honor of her little daughter Marion's fourth birthday. Games were enjoyed during the afternoon, after which the little guests gathered about the lovely decorated table, where the birthday cake was served. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Walker's hospitality were Blanche Vesely, Wesley Nichols, Ruby Morton, June Armstrong, Jean Kerr, Anna and Margherita Noce, Alberta Mason, Marion Walker, Mrs. Oscar Mason, Mrs. Chas. Vesely, Mrs. Richard Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. A. Steffens.

Laurel Lodge No. 186, I. O. O. F., and Laurelwood Rebekah Lodge No. 160, I. O. O. F., and their families enjoyed a joint picnic June 25th at Columbia Park. The afternoon was spent in races and a ball game between the Odd Fellows and the Rebekahs. The game was a close contest, the score standing 12 to 12 the last half of the ninth and the Rebekahs were at bat, the bases full and two down. The star third baseman of the Rebekahs hit the ball for a home run which ended the game, the final score being 12 to 16, in favor of the Rebekahs. Two star players, Ed. Connant and Walter Norene of the Odd Fellows, overestimated their capacity during lunch and were unable to play. They are the main battery for the Odd Fellows, so they were missed greatly. The weather was ideal, so every one enjoyed a good time.—Reported.
