

CHICAGO PASTOR WINS
EIGHT YEAR CRUSADE

"Fighting Parson" Cleaned Up Notorious North Side Dives.
Dr. Elmer Lynn Williams is called the "fighting parson" back in Chicago. When he came to that city as pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, he found an abominably corrupt condition in the moral life of his community. He proceeded to clean up conditions, and he did the job to a nicety.

He won the support and admiration of the good people of Chicago, the respect and co-operation of the police department and sheriff's office—and at the same time the everlasting hatred of the underworld. He led an eight-year campaign and won his battle with a knockout. Hear his lecture, "The Big Game," at Chautauqua, on the sixth night.
