SUMMONS

To the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah.

Allie H. Reimertz, Plaintiff, vs. Frank T. O'Connor and Nora O'Connor, his wife, the above named defendants.

To Frank T. O'Connor and Nora O'Connor, his wife, the above named defendants:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you and each of you are hereby required to appear in said court and cause and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before Monday, the 14th day of August, 1924, and date being six weeks from the date of first publication of this summons, and you fail to so appear and answer, or wait thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in her complaint herein, to-wit:

A judgment and decree forever enjoining, restraining and declaring null and void that certain contract entered into on or about the 10th day of March, 1924, by and between the plaintiff herein and defendants, Frank T. O'Connor and Nora O'Connor, wherein plaintiff agrees to sell and defendants to purchase that certain real property described as the North Ten (10) feet lot five (5) and the South Thirty (30) feet lot five (5) in Block Four (4) Block's Addition to East Portland and now within the corporate limits of the City of Portland, Oregon.

And enforcing and terminating all rights, title and interest of the defendants and each of them, in and to said premises in said contract described and herein before set out, and restoring the said real property to plaintiff, and for her costs and disbursements incurred in said suit, and such other and further relief in the premises as to the court may seem most and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof by order of the Honorable Robert Taylor, judge of the above entitled court, made and entered on 21st day of June, 1924, by which order it is decreed that this order be published in the St. Johns Review once a week for not less than six successive weeks, the date of the first publication thereof being June 21, 1924, and the date of the last publication being August 11, 1924.
