SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Multnomah, Althe H. Steiner, Plaintiff, vs. Frank T. O'Connor and Nora O'Connor, his wife, Defendants.

To Frank T. O'Connor and Nora O'Connor, his wife, the above named defendants: You and each of you are hereby required to appear to said court and cause and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before Monday, the 14th day of August, 1922, said date being six weeks from the date of first publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer for said threat, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in her complaint herein to wit:

A judgment and decree forever creating, terminating and declaring null and void that certain contract entered into on or about the 15th day of March, 1922, by and between the plaintiff herein and defendant, Frank T. O'Connor, and Nora O'Connor, wherein plaintiff agrees to sell and defendant to purchase that certain real property described as the North Ten (10) feet of lot five (5) and the South Thirty (30) feet of lot six (6) Block Four (4) North Addition to East Portland and now within the corporate limits of the City of Portland, Oregon.

And foregoing and terminating all right, title and interest of the defendants and each of them, in and to said premises in said contract described and herein before set out, and vesting the said real property to plaintiff, and for her care and behoof, incurred to said suit, and such other and further relief in the premises as to the court may seem meet and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof by order of the Honorable Robert Tucker, Judge of the above entitled court, made and entered on said day of June, 1922, by which order it is decreed that this order be published in the St. Johns Review once a week for not less than six successive weeks, the date of the first publication thereof being June 21, 1922, and the date of the last publication being August 11, 1922.
