The priest was remonstrating with one of his flock in an effort to make him give up drink. "I tell you, Pat," he said, "you should give it up. Whiskey is your worst enemy." "Me enemy, is it, Father?" said Pat with a twinkle; "and it was yer Riverence's self that told us only last Sunday that we should love our enemies." "So I did, Pat," retorted the priest, "but I didn't say you should swallow them."—Houtzdale Citizen.

What you give in charity in this world you take with you after death. The object of the Community church is to be of service to the whole town. We feel sure that is why the interest is keeping up so well during the Summer. Last Sunday the services were all well attended and in the evening the young people did credit to themselves. The addresses by Geo. Gordon and Hugh Whisler were a fine example of what our young men can do. Next Sunday we will have the privilege of hearing Dr. Borden. We are always pleased to have him with us, and in the evening Mr. M. B. Green will try to entertain us. There will be special music. The next Sunday Rev. Nourse will be back from his vacation and ready to take up the work. Plans are under way for a very interesting program for the coming year. On the trail of perseverance is tied Success.—Reported.
