

NOVEL USE FOR GRAMOPHONE

Machine Can Be Used to Tell Fortunes If One is Tired of Listening to Music.

You can have all kinds of fun with a gramophone.

It can become, for example, a most amusing fortune-teller. Prepare a cardboard disc, just the size of the turn-table, with a hole in its center for the pin. This can be done by placing a record on a sheet of cardboard, marking a pencil line round it, and cutting out with a pair of scissors.

Onto the disc paste a paper circle marked off round the edge into two divisions about two inches wide, in each of which have been written predictions, humorous or otherwise. The disc is placed on the turn-table, and a strip of cardboard about eight inches long and one inch wide is prepared. A hole rather larger than the diameter of the center pin is made at one end.

This is slipped over the pin, and the other end is bent down to form a support for the slip so that it will stand clear of the disc. An arrow is drawn upon it to act as a pointer.

Set the machine in motion and invite the company to consult the oracle. They do this by pressing the brake of the gramophone. The division on the disc opposite which the arrow on the fixed slip stops gives the "fortune" of the victim.

ONE OF OLDEST TRADITIONS

Picturesque Legend of the Slaughter of St. Ursula and the Eleven Thousand Virgins.

The legend of St. Ursula is one of the most picturesque of ancient traditions. It relates that she was the daughter of the Briton, Theonotus, and was desired in marriage by a heathen prince named Holofernes. She consented on the condition that he become a Christian, and allowed her three years in which to make a pilgrimage. He consented, and Ursula set out accompanied by 11,000 virgins. They journeyed up the Rhine as far as Basle and thence, by foot, to Rome, where they were joined, for their return march, by the pope and a retinue of clergy.

When they reached Cologne, on the return trip, they were attacked by hordes of wild Hunnish barbarians, and all were slain, although Attila, the leader of the Huns, attempted to save the life of Ursula that she might become his wife. She fell, however, pierced with an arrow, which has become her attribute in pictorial representations. As soon as the massacre was over angels appeared, in number equal to the slaughtered virgins, and put the barbarians to flight. Soon after a church was erected among the graves in honor of St. Ursula.
