Think Gently of Erring
Think gently of the erring!
Ye know not the power
With which the dark temptation came
In some unguarded hour;
Ye may not know how earnestly
They struggled, or how well,
Until the hour of darkness came,
And darkly thus they fell.
Think gently of the erring!
Oh, do not once forget,
However deeply stained by sin,
He is thy brother yet—
Heir of the self same heritage,
Child of the self same God!
He hast but stumbled in the path
Thou hast but feebly trod.
Speak gently of the erring!
For is it not enough—
That innocence and grace are gone,
Without thy censure rough?
It surely must be a weary lot,
That sin crushed heart to bear,
And they who share a happy fate
Their chidings well may spare.
Speak kindly to the erring!
Thou yet may'st lead them back
With holy words and tones of love
From misery's thorny track,
Forget not that thou hast often sinned
And sinful yet may be;
Deal gently with the erring
As God has dealt with thee.
—Exchange.

St. Johns is the best part of the best city in the best country in the world. All citizens of St. Johns should get that fact firmly fixed in their minds; talk about it, drink it in their coffee and become thoroughly saturated with it.—Contributed.

Marjory—Mamma, were you at home when I was born? Mother—No, darling, I was staying with grandma, in the country. Marjory—Wasn't you awfully surprised when you heard about it?

How Many Will Give One Dollar?

WALTER M. PIERCE is making a gallant fight, almost single-handed, to be elected Governor of Oregon. He has no funds to pay the expenses of his campaign. The issue he makes is Reduced Taxes, and he promises, if elected, to use every power vested in Governor to lessen the taxation that now rests so heavily upon the backs of the people.

No powerful corporations are behind Pierce; nobody but the plain people. His election depends upon them alone. Don't you feel it your duty to help him in his worthy fight by contributing One Dollar to his expenses? It isn't much for any one to give, but there are many plain people, and if you help a little the battle will be won. It will make a clean campaign and elect a clean man.

Please send your dollar today, together with your name and address, and the contribution will be acknowledged by return mail.

Putting Pierce in means putting your taxes down Help Pierce Win!
