Statement of ownership and management required by the act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of The St. Johns Review, published weekly at Portland, Oregon, for October 1, 1922.

Before me, a Notary Public, in and for the State and County aforesaid, personally appeared A. W. Markle, who having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the publisher of the St. Johns Review and that the following is to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication, for the date shown in the above caption, to wit: That the names of the owners of the publication, its editor, managing editor and business managers are:

Publisher, A. W. Markle, Portland, Oregon
Editor, Markle
Managing Editor, Markle
Business Manager, Markle
What the owners are:
A. W. Markle, Portland, Oregon
Markle Estate, Clearfield, Penna.
That the known bondholders, mortgagees and other security holders owning or holding a percent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities are Markle Estate, Clearfield, Penna.
That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders and security holders, if any, contain not only the full name of each stockholder and security holder as they appear upon the books of the company, but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing all assets and liabilities in any capacity other than that of a bona fide owner, and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other persons, association or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him. A. W. Markle, Publisher.
