The new package Dates are in at last. They were needed badly. This year's pack of Del Monte Seedless Raisins are here also and they are very fine.

Sweet Potatoes are good and never cheaper. We cannot remember of selling 7 pounds for 25c before.

Apples are good now and cheap, also Potatoes the same.

The City Consumer has it all his own way this year as the Rancher is getting low prices for everything he markets. The Golden Bantam Corn is still excellent and Tomatoes as well. Look out for Flour as it started up this week and may go much higher. Sugar has gone up again and Canned Milk.

New Mince Meat is in now and cheaper than for several years. You cannot make it as cheap yourself.

We have Sweet Cider in jugs and Boiled Cider in bottles and the new Citron, Lemon and Orange Peels are in.

On October 19th Mrs. Wm. Blaikie entertained at dinner on the occasion of her daughter, Joan's, birthday anniversary.

Agatha Waite, who is teaching near Eagle Creek, spent the week end visiting at the home of her parents, 810 N. Syracuse street.

The Black Confectionery has opened up for business at 512 N. Jersey street with a full line of home made candies and confectionery.

T. C. Waite, civil engineer of Washington, spent several days with his family here in the city, during the illness of his daughter, Miss Audrey.

Dow V. Walker, Republican nominee for County Commissioner, is deserving of the support of the voters. He is a local man and should receive an enormous vote.

Mr. Ezra Donald Green and Miss Lucy Mae Doty were united in marriage by Dr. H. P. Jones at his office October 25th. They will make their home on Hartman street.

W. J. Lawrence brought a couple of potatoes to this office last week that were certainly beauties. They weighed 4 lbs. and 3 3/4 lbs. respectively. They were grown along the Santiam.

The Burnside bridge measure is one of the important measures on the ballot at Tuesday's election. It is said the County Commissioners are averse to placing any other bridge measure upon the ballot until the Burnside bridge has been provided for.

Don't forget the silver tea for the Farm Home this afternoon at the St. Johns Y. W. C. A. from 3 to 5 o'clock. An interesting program will be heard and the place is open to any one who would like to come. You are most cordially invited to be present. The Tri-Wor-Que Club will serve.

Mr. Dwight Winans and Miss Valera Christina Martin were united in marriage by Rev. H. H. Farnham, pastor of the Evangelical church, at his residence, 304 E. John street, Wednesday evening. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Martin. They will make their home at 419 N. Leonard street.

On Wednesday of Music Week, Nov. 8, at 8 p. m. there will be a Victrola entertainment at the St. Johns Branch Library. Mr. Randolph Howard, who has the program in charge, is selecting the records with care and will offer brief explanation of some of the music. Victrola and records have been loaned the library by Mr. Curran.

The children's Community Chorus meets again Friday evening at the Baptist church at 7:45 p. m. We call attention to the error in last week's Review which should have read all children from 10 years up instead of from 15 years up. The chorus had over 50 at the rehearsal last week and a much larger attendance is looked for this Friday. The chorus is planning to give a concert in about three weeks, so all children who want to take part in this concert must attend the next three rehearsals.—Rep

On Saturday evening, Oct. 31, about 200 club girls with several parents participated in their annual Hallowe'en masquerade frolic at the St. Johns Branch Y. W. C. A. The evening program opened with the grand march led by Miriam Bachman and Hazel Fox, with Helen Bender at the piano. Games and stunts by each club were features of the evening. Doughnuts and apples were served for refreshments. The building was beautifully decorated by the Florensonion Club from the Williams school.

The Parent-Teacher Associations and other organizations are uniting in a big musical program to be given Friday evening the 10th of November at the St. Johns Branch Y. W. C. A. at 8 o'clock. The program follows: Mr. Sneed's String Quartet; Solo, Harry Fasset; Quartet, Easter Star; Reading, Mrs. Geo. Hall; Chorus, George School; Solo, Miss Lola Murphy; J. J. High School Glee Club; Violin Solo, John Oliver; Piano Duet, Glenn Jones and Randolph Howard Solo, Frank Jus; Musical Pantomime, Y. W. C. A. Girls. Every one is invited and all who like music ought to enjoy this program, which will be given by some of our best entertainers.

Remember our townsman, D. C. Lewis, is a nominee for the State Legislature. He is entitled to, and will no doubt receive a handsome vote. Good thing to have a man from St. Johns in the Legislature.

We ask the indulgence of our readers for the lack of news in this issue. Owing to a rush of advertising and job printing this week the space was taken up and the force did not have time to add a couple more pages.

The Hallowe'en party given by the Community Club in the Y. W. C. A. building Tuesday evening was a most jolly affair. A highly entertaining program was given and refreshments of pumpkin pie and cider was served. The attendance was large.

Beginning Sunday, Nov. 12th, the Y. W. C. A. building will be open to the public every Sunday afternoon from 3 till 5 o'clock. Any one who wants a place to go will find a hearty welcome. A different program at each meeting. Music will be provided and something to interest all. The committee women will take their turn in acting as hostesses.

Dr. Martin is a speaker of National reputation, having spoken on the principles of Religious Liberty in almost every state in the Union. You are invited to be present and hear the discussion and then decide the question on its own merits. pd adv

Dr. T. L. Perkins made a good Finance Commissioner three years ago. He also made good as State Senator. He was instrumental in having laws passed while acting as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee that were of special benefit to the people of this state. Dr. Perkins has a clean public record, is possessed of qualifications that fit him for the place and if elected to the office will give his entire attention to serving the public, honestly and faithfully.

Bernard C. Hickman and Anna Carlson were united in marriage Saturday, October 28th, Rev. Luther Deek, Lutheran minister, officiating. The bride wore a dark blue tulle suit and a very beautiful black chinchilla lace waist and small black velvet hat with bird of paradise feathers and silver trimmings. Her corsage was of small bride roses and hollyhock and asparagus ferns. Her maid of honor, Miss Mary Monroe, and best man, Mr. Edward Shaw. At the home of the bride's the wedding dinner was served. Many delicious dishes were served and a very beautiful wedding cake. The house was artistically decorated to represent Hallowe'en. Those present at the dinner were the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Hickman, Miss Mary Monroe, Edward Shaw, Mrs. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. A. Carson, father and mother of the bride, Mrs. J. Hickman, mother of the groom, and Oscar, Carl, Gustav and Ernest Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Nelson, Mrs. P. Rood, Mrs. Olson, Miss Marie Heine, Clyde Heine, Mrs. George Letson. The bridal couple will be home to their friends at 927 S. Kellogg street.
