JAMES JOHN HI NOTES

At the regular assembly on Tuesday the operetta cast did some effective advertising by presenting a brief dramatic-musical excerpt from "The Gypsy Rover", which is being presented in the high school auditorium Friday and Saturday evenings of this week.

The business management for the Senior play was elected at a called meeting of the class on Wednesday. Those responsible for the mechanics of the production and for its financial success are: business manager, Howard Gee; assistant manager, Albert Smithson; stage manager, Orval Johnson; assistant, Edward Clarke; costume manager, Grace Catto; property manager, Blodman Powell; head usher, Leonard Harrington.

On Tuesday evening the football boys who played in the Jefferson game and a number of other fortunate people were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn at a banquet at the Hotel Portland. Following the sumptuous dinner, dancing was enjoyed for a short time. The company included the following guests: Earl Tormey, Curtis Robertson, James Tormey, Bob Miller, Bob Keeney, Harold Llewellyn, Lincoln Cochran, Elmer Lott, Morris Stearns, Albert Smithson, Jack Van Hoeter, Orval Johnson, Ferris Ried, Robt. Ohm, Wendell Kloster, Ellsworth Rakes, Coach Hiatt, Madeline Brown, Vesta Hughes, Eleanor Doughty, Elta Bass, Emma Stephens, Dorothy Starr, Eunice Warnick, Margaret White, Winnifre O'Brien, Ruby Johnson, Principal Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn.

Students of the high school have been urged by Mr. Fletcher to do their part in promoting the spirit of good cheer at Christmas time by looking up, repairing and distributing all possible playthings and toys. The manual training classes, arts classes and sewing classes have undertaken to refurbish all articles brought to childhood, if they be loved to their shops.

The girls' basketball schedule of inter-class games is moving steadily forward and the games are proving spirited ones.

New Arrangement.
He was a contractor and after building nine houses on the same plan, blue prints were of no consequence to him. The tenth house was well under way before he gave much attention to the details. He surveyed the structure and was astonished to find that a fireplace had been built in the kitchen. His other houses had all faced the west. This one faced the east.
