c3:initiative - a new look at and old issue

Story & Photos by James Moulton

The "c3" stands for Connecting Creators and Communities and is located at 7326 N. Chicago in St. Johns where they opened their doors July 2012. In their words, "We support: arts by creating opportunities for exploration and collaboration; healing through therapeutic processes that promote self-actualization; excellence by recognizing individuals who lead by example".

In concrete terms, their projects include: providing support and a gallery for a Blue Moon Staff Show, a collaboration with Pulp and Deckle, and NW Film Center

The front of the Wapato Jail

School of Film, and a number of other gallery shows.

Another project, under the umbrella of "Artists in Residence," is a collaboration since 2013 with was provided for its construction, but none for staffing, so it has never housed a single prisoner in its 525-bed capacity. It has been meticulously maintained, and looks like it was just completed, both inside and out. Because it was funded with County Bonds, many restrictions concerning its use will expire when they are paid off.

The c3: - ERNEST collaborative project's results will be a video, a publication, and a symposium in the fall of 2015 when the video will be screened. On December 13, 2014, scenes using volunteers were filmed, with other filming over several days. While there, the volunteers were given a short tour of key parts of the facility.

The Wapato Jail is no stranger to film crews, as segments of "Leverage" and "Grimm," as well as many other advertisements and public service spots were shot there. When the Bonds are satisfied, much more extensive use as a filming location would be permitted or even conversion to permanent sound stages.

(Thank you c3: initiative and ERNEST for the complete access given this photographer.)

ERNEST, a group of artists currently based in the San Francisco bay area. This project is to bring discussion of the disposition of the Wapato Jail facility to the forefront as the Bonds that funded it will be paid off in a bit over a year, in 2016.

If you're not familiar with Multnomah County's Wapato Jail story, it is a jail that was constructed to be a short term holding facility, located near the Smith & Bybee lakes and was completed in 2004, 10+ years ago. Original funding
