Dennis Thomas McCormack

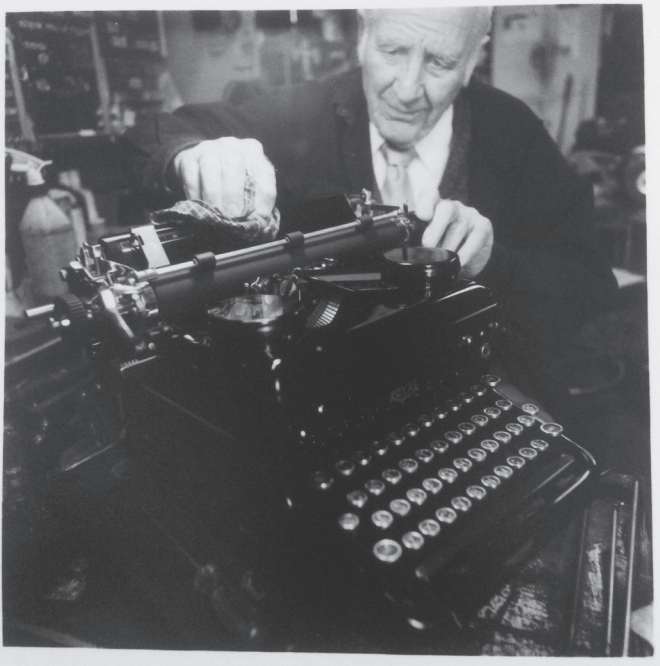

Dennis Thomas McCormack passed away in his favorite chair on Thursday January 15 at 91 years of age. He was born on May 28, 1923 in Great Falls Montana to William & Catherine McCormack. He was brother to four sisters, Eileen, Nora Helen, Kathleen & Maureen.

Dennis graduated High School in 1942, and left Montana for Portland, with the intention of enlisting in the Service. In 1943, he joined the Navy and served during WWII aboard the USS Dashiell, where despite failing typing, he was deemed the only Sailor with enough typewriter experience to keep the Ship's Log.

On June 10, 1946, Dennis married Carol Adelaide Anderson. They eventually settled in North Portland where they began their Family. Despite juggling several jobs, including working for Underwood Typewriter, Dennis enrolled in classes at the University of Portland. He graduated in 1960 while working for United Airlines and in 1961 opened Ace Typewriter & Equipment Co in St. Johns, where he worked up until his passing.

Dennis is survived by his children - William, Susan Morton (William), Melissa, Mary Therese, Anne, Christopher (Karen), Patrick (Kari), Matthew (Maureen Bachmann) and Maria McCormack. He is survived by his grandchildren, Phillip, Catherine & Carol Morton, Paul & Richard McCormack and Chris & Greg Blomquist. Dennis also leaves behind several great grandchildren and his Dear Friend Darlene Thayer.

He was preceded in death by his wife, as well as three of his children Kathleen, Steven and Joseph McCormack.

Rosary and Funeral were held on Friday January 23rd at Holy Cross Church in Portland.

Arrangements entrusted to Hustad Funeral Home.

Mina Stratford

Mina Stratford of Portland, Oregon, passed away on December 26, 2014 in Hillsboro, Oregon.

Mina was born in Scotia Township (Landa), North Dakota to Peter and Marie Fylling on December 3, 1917. She attended school in Bottineau County, Nursing school in Los Angeles, California and then moved to Portland, Oregon to work at Emanuel Hospital. She married Donald Stratford on September 24, 1950 in Portland, Oregon.

She was involved in a variety of volunteer activities both in her church and the community including Sunday school, Boy & Girl Scouts, Friends of Columbia Park, Portland Community Policing, and helping at Northwest Place where she lived the past 14 years.

Mina is preceded in death by her parents Peter and Marie, her husband Donald and all of her siblings.

Mina is survived by her son John Stratford (Ronda), daughter Marie Stratford and son Merlyn Stratford; Grandchildren Reuben Stratford (Sarah) and Andrea Parmalee (Tyrone); Great Grandchildren Robyn, Holly, Boone, Joshua, Hailey, Jennifer and Emma; and a long list of very dear friends and relatives.

A celebration of Mina's life was held December 29th and she has been laid to rest alongside her husband at Willamette National Cemetery.

Memorials may be given to the charity of your choice.

The family of Mina wishes to extend our sincere thanks to Legacy Hospice Services and the caring staff at Empres Hillsboro for the care and comfort they provided during the past month.

Arrangements were made by Hustad Funeral Home.
