Neighborhoods host cleanups: Saturday, May 16

Portsmouth & University Park Neighborhoods will hold a spring Dumpster Day neighborhood cleanup event from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm in the Eagles Lodge parking lot at North Lombard Street and Exeter. Rain or shine. Suggested donation is $5 per car.

Please no yard waste, construction debris, commercial waste, kitchen garbage, hazardous waste, biowaste or recyclable materials. Volunteers have the right to refuse materials that appear unsafe, unsanitary or otherwise unacceptable.

Come prepared to unload your materials from the Goodwill van will be on site for reusable items, and neighbors are invited to take what they want before it goes in the Goodwill also accepts e-waste (electronics).

The Peninsula K-8 PTA will be collecting materials on site as part of its spring "Clothes for a Cause" fundraiser. They accept clothing, shoes, blankets, sheets, curtains, tablecloths and more. Please bring materials in bags.

If interested in volunteering, email mary.williams@stjohnsreview.com or call 503-240-3344. A special thank you to the Eagles for their continued support in hosting community events.

St. Johns and Cathedral Park Neighborhood Associations are holding a Recycling Roundup from 10am-4pm in the parking at St. John's Christian Church (8044 N. Richmond Avenue). Suggested donation is $5 per car. Items accepted include: electronics; batteries; clothing; bicycles; household goods; tires; scrap metal; reusable building materials; styrofoam, household junk and more. Please NO: yard debris, garbage, kitchen waste, commercial or hazardous waste; concrete; dirt; stumps; microwaves; contractor loads; car batteries.

These events provide a low-cost alternative to disposing of materials at a Metro transfer station and helps cut down on illegal dumping in our community. They are made possible through support from Metro, Portland's Office of Neighborhood Involvement and most of all, your neighbors volunteering their time.
