Obituary

Sandra Jean Noble-Dunning

5/4/1940 - 3/26/2015

Celebration of Life planned for May 2 at St. Johns Bachelors Club

Our beautiful mother, Sandra Jean Noble-Dunning, 74, of Portland, Oregon lost her battle with leukemia on March 26, 2015. Her family was by her side when God called her home.

She was born in Newberg, Oregon the second child to Howard and Magdalen Noble on May 4th 1940. Sandra had one older sister Janet Noble that preceded her in death in 2006.

She graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1958 and later married Charles Dunning in 1964; they later divorced. Sandra then raised her four daughters.

She was forced to retire in 1990 due to arthritis of the spine. Charles preceded her in death in 2010. Sandra later rekindled a romance she had in high school with as she put it "The love of her life", George T. (Bud) Albrecht. They were together for eight years until his death in 2010.

Sandra loved the outdoors. She loved to go for scenic drives, for walks and to the beach, but most of all she loved being a mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She is survived by her four daughters; Debra (Dunning) Taloff of Battle Ground, Washington; Teresa (Dunning) Aispuro of Portland, Oregon; Dianna (Dunning) McKenna of St. Helens, Oregon and Kristina Dunning of Portland, Oregon.

She will be greatly missed by her 11 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren with one on the way; five nieces; two nephews and of course her friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held at The St. Johns Bachelors Club 8204 N.

Central St. Portland, Oregon from 3pm - 6pm on May 2nd 2015. Private Interment Noble Cemetery Newberg, Oregon.

A Real Light Story

It was a normal Portland gray Spring day. Mrs. H was having a good day doing Saturday chores around the house when she noticed she was out of Neodymium bulbs. Soon she arrived at the Lightbulb Playroom.

She walked in and said, "I was in such a good mood at home. Now I feel depressed and grumpy. This gray weather gets to me."

She then spent some time selecting her replacement lamps and adding some special lights for decoration. During the time she spent under the full spectrum lights in my store, she began to feel better. When she was ready to leave, she turned around and said, "Your lights restored me."

Come to the playroom and see how just a short time under these lights can help you feel better.

BANK ROBBERY ON HAYDEN ISLAND

News Release from Portland Police Bureau

Posted on FlashAlert: April 20th, 2015 11:45 AM

On Monday April 20, 2015, at 11:19 a.m., North Precinct officers responded to the report of a bank robbery at the Wells Fargo Bank branch, located at 12240 North Jantzen Drive. Officers arrived in the area and contacted employees who told police the suspect implied that he had a gun as he demanded money. After obtaining an undisclosed amount of cash, the suspect left the bank without further incident. The suspect is described as a white male in his 40s to 50s, 6' tall, pale skin, wearing a tan and red shirt. Anyone with information about this robbery is asked to contact Robbery Detectives at (503) 823-0405; or, the Portland office of the F.B.I. at (503) 224-4181.

SINGLE VEHICLE FATAL CRASH ON NE COLUMBIA BLVD

News Release from Portland Police Bureau

Posted on FlashAlert: April 19th, 2015 7:34 PM

The driver this fatal crash, 19-year-old Destini Jordaire Washington, has been booked into the Multnomah County Jail on charges of Manslaughter in the First Degree, Driving Under the Influence of Intoxicants (DUII), Reckless Driving, and Reckless Endangerment. She was arraigned on Monday following the crash.

The passenger who died at the scene has been identified as 19-year-old Alexandria Cooper. Investigators learned that Washington was driving a 2004 Hyundai Sonata westbound on Columbia Boulevard at a high rate of speed prior to losing control and crashing. Cooper was ejected from the vehicle and died at the scene. The vehicle struck one of the large concrete pillars for the 33rd Avenue overpass.
