Correction:

The name of the officer referred to in last issue’s article, “Who Was Bruce McAdie and Why Did He Burn?” (#9 May 1, 2015,) should be officer Rod Gustafson of north Precinct. Officer Rod knew Bruce for four years and was the first to arrive on the scene after he was burned.

St. Johns Bridge Contest Rules:

For each issue the editor will choose two pictures to be used as either a Masthead or as a Photo of the Week. A third pictures may also be used as space allows.

At the end of 2015 (most likely in November,) the pictures will be voted upon by readers for which photo reader’s liked the best. The winner will receive a $100 cash prize from the Review.

Pictures must be:

*Sent in high resolution (200+) and sent to reviewnewspaper@comcast.net or review-newspaper@gmail.com in JPEG format.

* Pictures may be cropped (by the Review) to fit the paper’s perimeters. For photos appearing in the Masthead they need to be vertical more than horizontal. Masthead pictures are 10.25” across, and 3” to 5” tall. Pictures of the Week can be vertical or horizontal and any size.

* Pictures appearing in the paper must belong to taker of the picture, but the Review has the right to use them in current and future issues.

* Color pictures are preferred, but outstanding black & whites might be used.

* Photos used in 2013 and/or 2014 may be sent and used again.

* If multiple photos are sent at one time by a photographer, the Review will use judgment for the picture (or pics) we think will print best in the paper.

* Since this is a first, these rules may change during the year, or more suggestions and rules added. (We’ll learn as we go.)

* One vote per person. Voting begins in November where all the year’s pictures will be re-shown.

(Disclaimer: Pictures appearing in the paper are reformatted to tiff’s at 600 resolution for printing presses. After placement in the paper and being printed on newsprint, the photos may lose a certain amount of clarity. The Review cannot be responsible for lack of clarity or any other changes in the pictures. The Review is not responsible or liable for pictures sent in saying their author has taken them when in fact they may not have.)
