Wright Brothers buy business in St. Johns

On December 23, 1978, Vic Wright became the new owner of the Peninsula Glass Company. The Wright brothers, who have been in the glass business for over 30 years, are moving their business to St. Johns. The new location is at 1200 N. Lombard St. The Wright brothers are excited to be in St. Johns and to continue their tradition of excellence in glass work. They plan to offer a wide variety of services, including custom glass doors, windows, and mirrors. They also plan to offer a full range of glass repair services. The Wright brothers are looking forward to serving the St. Johns community and to continuing their tradition of excellence in glass work.
