CRIME STOPPERS ASKING HELP WITH OVERLOOK RESTAURANT ROBBERY

News Release from Portland Police Bureau
Posted FlashAlert: June 18 2015 8:30 AM

The Portland Police Bureau, in cooperation with Crime Stoppers of Oregon, is asking for the public's help to solve a North Portland robbery. On April 29, 2015, at 11:11 p.m., North Precinct officers responded to the Overlook Restaurant, located at 1332 North Skidmore Street, on the report of an armed robbery.

Officers learned that the suspect approached the victim in the parking lot, armed with a handgun, and escorted the victim into the restaurant after closing time.

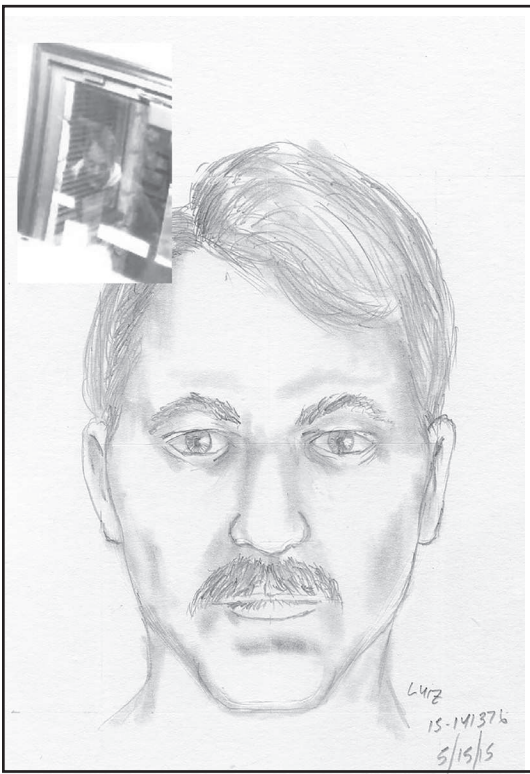

After obtaining a large sum of cash, the suspect left the restaurant without incident. A surveillance image and a forensic sketch are being released to assist with this investigation. The suspect is described as a white male, 6' tall, 175 pounds, medium build, brown hair, and a mustache.

Crime Stoppers of Oregon is offering a minimum $250 cash reward to anyone who reports a convicted felon or a juvenile in possession of a firearm and tipsters can remain anonymous.

Leave a Crime Stoppers tip online at <http://www.crimestoppersoforegon.com> text CRIMES (274637) and in the subject line put 823HELP, followed by your tip, or call 503-823-HELP (4357) and leave your tip information. Police and Fire reports in this section are received from the Portland Police Bureau and the Portland Fire & Rescue via email and information is not changed although it may be updated according to dated info.

George Everett Philpott August 18, 1927—May 10, 2015

George Philpott passed away at the age of 87 years 9 months in the early morning hours on May 10, 2015 at the Hampton at Salmon Creek in Vancouver, Washington. Wife Dorothy, daughter Candice Burck, son Paul and his wife Mary were at his side.

The second of four children, he was born to Everett N. and Gertrude W. (Simpson) Philpott on August 18, 1927 in Columbus, Montana. There, with his parents and siblings (Joan, Betty, and Robert) he lived gaining knowledge, and love for mechanics, the outdoors, and animals. At an early age he could rope and ride a horse, which he used to ride back and forth to school.

When he was fifteen, after the death of a close friend, his family moved to Portland, Oregon where he enrolled at Benson Polytechnic High School, and within a short time began working in the Swan Island Shipyards supervising women welders. Before he was 18 years old, George talked his parents into letting him join the Navy during WWII. He served on the USS Miami as a gunner's mate and reached the rank of GM3. In 1948 he returned to Portland where he met his first wife Gladys Beatrice Skjei. He had driven a friend out to a filbert orchard and there was Gladys sitting in one of the trees. On January 16, 1951 George and Gladys were married and took up residence in North Portland near close friends and family where they raised three children Paul Everett, Patrick Edward, and Candice Joy.

George accepted employment with logging equipment manufacturer Skookum Co. Inc., in St. Johns where he worked as a highly respected hydraulic mechanic and millwright for 25 years. He traveled the expanse of the Pacific Northwest and Alaska before Skookum's selling and St. Johns closure.

After 40 years of marriage Gladys passed away in her sleep. In 1993 he met Dorothy June Williams and they were married for 22 years.

George loved people, working with his hands, reading (especially about the old Wild West, politics and history—which he loved to debate about), working on cars, hunting and fishing, mining, making cinnamon rolls and lefse. He was a 32nd degree mason in the Shriners and a proud member of the American Legion, Boiler Makers Union, Good Sam, VFW and Gold Prospectors Association.

He is survived by his wife Dorothy, sons Paul (Mary) and Patrick (Susan), daughter Candice (Doug), step-sons Bruce (Dawn) and Ricky (Mary) Williams and step-daughter Tammy Nelson, numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren, a brother Robert C. Philpott, plus a multitude of family and close friends.

Arrangements under the direction of Hustad Funeral Home, Portland, OR. (503) 286-9663 A Memorial service was held at St Johns Christian Church 8044 N Richmond Ave on May 13, 2015.
