Boat being lowered into an awaiting Sheriff's boat

Top: The Fennica passing beneath the St. Johns Bridge.
Below: The ship passing kayakers.

Top: River Patrol forcing one kayaker to the side as the Fennica approaches.

Right: One overturned.

This shot shows the Fennica with law enforcement vehicles attempting to keep kayakers away. Very crowded waterway.

Fire Bureau boat was trying to help this swimmer but he kept pushing them away.

This spectacular picture was taken by Mark LaMalfa.

Minimize fire danger

cord type firewood in a pit or pan prepared to contain the fire less than 3' in height and less than 2'. Have a hose nearby and keep all outdoor furniture away from any structure.

Clearance to structures: Structures that are directly adjacent to your home are safer if you create a separation between low-level vegetation and tree branches to keep fire from climbing up trees.

Learn more about how to protect your home from wildfire and download your Personal Wildland Action Guide at Portland Fire & Rescue's website: <https://www.portlandoregon.gov/fire/wildland>

As always, feel free to stop by and visit your neighborhood Portland Fire & Rescue Station, where firefighters can answer your questions about fire safety and show you some of the specialized equipment serving your neighborhood.
