"I stopped to snap a few pics at the Aug 1, 2015 farmers market. There were so many people out loving the vibe, the fabulous sunshine, and the clear skies."

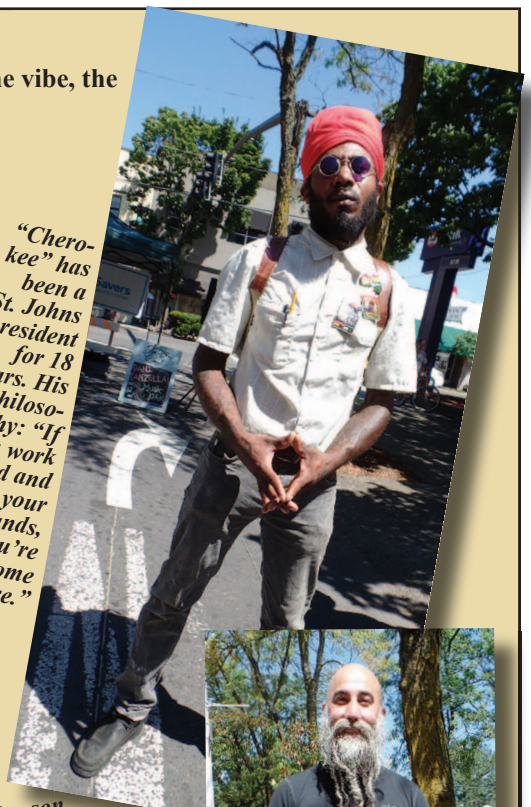

Claire Hendricks (left) - minding sales at the Gales Creek Fraga Farmstead cheese booth. And her friend from Santa Cruz, Heather Monahan (right). Heather said that the reason she comes to Portland every summer is to visit family and because she feels very strongly that "This is my spirit town."

"Oh Prema", (her chosen name), is a resident of four years, here with her "superheroes" in tow in the wagon. "They picked their own outfits today," she said.

Left: Ron Ranson, with daughters Savannah and Stella, says that St. Johns is a good family community. He grew up in Woodlawn, lived in Kenton, and has recently bought a home in St. Johns.

"Cherokee" has been a St. Johns resident for 18 years. His philosophy: "If you work hard and use your hands, you're welcome here."

Right: Bruce Yarnall, resident in a kilt. At the market celebrating all three of his children's birthdays.
