The motorcycle rider killed has been identified as 20-year-old Joshua Michael Terry. Investigators learned that Terry, along with several other motorcycle riders left Kelley Point Park and were riding eastbound on Marine Drive. According to several witnesses, the group of riders was traveling at a high rate of speed, possibly exceeding 100 miles per hour, and at least one rider was performing a wheelie. Somes' truck, striking the driver's door area. The impact of the crash killed Terry and injured Somes.

The investigation is continuing and no arrests or citations have been issued. Upon completion of the investigation, the Multnomah County District Attorney's Office will review the case.
