Hi Readers,

Gary C Patton
Dec. 28, 1945 – Sept. 23, 2015

Life is precious and I want you to all hug and be extra kind to those near and dear to you today.

This week I lost my husband who has been courageously battling Parkinsons for many years.

I've known Gary C Patton since I was 16 years old – that's 51 years. We were summer teenage sweethearts in 1964 as we boated with our parents who were members of Hayden Island Yacht Club. I wouldn't learn until 40+ years later that he had a crush on me as big as the crush I had on him that summer. We lost contact with each other as he headed off the college and I finished high school but we ran into each other while in our 20's at the Faucet Tavern on Beaverton Hillsdale Hwy., which was the hot spot in the 1970s. We dated for about six months and lost contact again, both eventually marrying other people, which ended in divorces. When I was in my 40s and needing glasses (and him being an optometrist), I called him to see if he remembered me and to schedule an appointment. He remembered – I kept the appointment, (which turned into a four hour flirt session,) and we begin dating again the next day. Five years later we married in Las Vegas on 3/03/2003.

Gary was a wonderful man; he was moral, hard working, a loving father and step-father, grandfather, brother, uncle, son and friend to many. He will be missed terribly.
Rest in peace Gary. I love you.
Gayla
