St Johns-Cathedral Park Cultural Center Planning Committee opportunity

This group is looking for any and all individuals that would like to be on the SJ-CP Cultural Center Planning Committee. The group is trying to put together a steering committee to look at the possibility of developing a St Johns-Cathedral Park Cultural Performing Arts Center in the heart of downtown St Johns. The steering committee's job is putting together a vision for the cultural center that could be presented in a package to persons they would be considering as a potential board member. After the board of directors is put together it would be the board's job to take the cultural center idea to the next level by implementing a strategy to get it off the ground and long term planning for the cultural center. Let them know if you are interested in being on the steering

Urban Weeds Workshop

Weeds - control them before they control you! Join them for an after-work exploration of common garden and landscape weeds along with some other notorious plant invaders of the region. Gain an understanding of how these aggressive plants take over - and how to get the upper hand controlling their spread without turning to synthetic herbicides.

Wednesday: October 21 from 6:30-9:00pm, Trillium Charter School, 5420 N Interstate Ave. Workshop is FREE but registration is required. Register online at http://emswcd.org/workshopsand-events/upcoming-workshops/ Rain Gardens 101

Puddle problems? Rain gardens are landscape features that collect and treat stormwater from places like driveways, rooftops, sidewalks, and parking lots. This workshop is designed to teach you step-by-step how to plan, design, and build a rain garden. Topics include determining the right size and location for a rain garden, how to build it, and advice on choosing plants that will thrive in it. Participants will visit a nearby rain garden for inspiration. Workshop is designed for those looking to build a rain garden at a residential or other private yard, but is open to anyone interested in the topic.

Saturday October 24 from 9:00am-1:00pm, Trillium Charter School, 5420 N Interstate Ave. Workshop is FREE but registration is required. Register online at http://emswcd.org/workshopsand-events/upcoming-workshops/

She reunited with her husband Lloyd Roberts Hastings on Saturday September 5, 2015 at Bethany Presbyterian Church. Services entrusted to Hustad Funeral Home.

Sharon Lee Laughlin

June 8, 1948 – Sept. 10, 2015

Born in Redmond, Oregon on June 8, 1948 to Wade and Helen McDougall, Sharon Lee Laughlin died in Portland, Oregon on September 10, 2015 of pancreatic cancer.

The family relocated to the Coos Bay/North Bend area where her parents owned and operated Hilltop

House, a popular area restaurant. Sharon graduated from North Bend High School and attended Southern Oregon College. Following her time at SOC, she worked in and managed various bars and restaurants along the Oregon coast. In Newport, she met and married her husband, Jim. Their first child, Todd was born with serious medical issues and soon after they moved to Portland. Sharon was totally dedicated to his care during the three short years of his life. Two more children followed, Lindsay (1983) and Jamie (1985). In Portland, the family first belonged to Holy Redeemer Parish and then to Holy Cross.

In 1989 Sharon and Jim fulfilled a long-held dream, opening The Fishwife, a seafood restaurant in North Portland and truly Sharon's legacy. The business was passed on to her daughter, Lindsay, in 2013.

Sharon enjoyed trips to Hawaii, swimming, time with family, friends and dogs and helped out at The Fishwife until weeks before her passing.

Predeceased by her parents, three siblings, her husband and son, Sharon is survived by daughters, Lindsay Porter (Nick) and Jamie Laughlin, a large extended family and friend, Dave

Services were held September 18th at Holy Redeemer; donations in Sharon's memory: Pancreatic Cancer Action Network, 1500 Rosecrans Ave., Ste. 200, Manhattan Beach, CA, 90266.
